BISHOP WHO REFUSES TO GO TO WASHINGTON

Washington, Aug. 19—Twice in six months, declining to become the Episcopal bishop of Washington, Bishop Charles H. Brent, of the Philippine Islands, has refused one of the most coveted positions that his church can ever offer him.

Had the bishop felt inclined to yield to the allurements of the second call, he would have had difficulty in explaining to the residents of the Philippines his change of mind. By a coincidence, on the very day, June 17, that the diocese of Washington was for the second time electing Bishop Brent as its bishop, a morning newspaper in Manila was printing the explanation to his people for declining the call to Washington.

"Genuine contentment is a rarely beautiful characteristic," said Bishop Brent. "I do not mean the stagnant contentment that succumbs to environment, but the progressive, lively spirit that is busy availing itself of today's opportunities, beating unruly conditions into shape and at the same time anticipating better things for tomorrow. We seem to be hampered by a constitutional perversity which blinds us to the magnitude of our present opportunities and denies contentment much more than a night's lodging in our souls. It is the forbidden that seems the home of opportunity rather than that which is to be had for the asking.

"Place can never make a small man great, only ridiculous," he continued. "A big place, a place where the atmosphere is composed of the souls of great men who have gone, must always have to occupy it a soul as big as it already is, or bigger else the throne will become a mockery and the papacy a hissing.

"Big things and places are where big causes and men are. We, here, can make these islands, a few years ago obscure, unimportant, great forever—if we first make ourselves great by doing our small tasks greatly and allying ourselves consciously with great causes. Otherwise we shall make them worse than obscure. Political jugglery, selfishness, insincerity and American vice will make them notorious. We must apply the best that we are to our tasks. That is the first step."

He explained that if he did leave the Philippines, it would be on account of his health.

"Our lot, yours and mine," he concluded, "is cast in a fair ground. We are here in the Orient, you and I, to cling to the ideal life and to dare the greatest task the world has ever set itself—to unite east and west in mutual understanding and service."

A STEADY DRAIN

Sick Kidneys Weaken the Whole Body—Make You Ill, Languid and Depressed.

Sick kidneys weaken the body through the continual drainage of life-giving albumen from the blood into the urine, and the substitution of poisonous uric acid that goes broadcast through the system, sowing the seeds of disease. Loss of albumen causes weakness, languor, depression. Uric poisoning causes rheumatic pain, nervousness, nausea, cricks in the back, gravel and kidney stones. The proper treatment is a kidney treatment, and the best remedy is Doan's Kidney Pills. Great Salem cures prove it.

A. J. Wood, of 250 Cottage St., Salem, Or., says: "Kidney and bladder trouble became so bad with me about two months ago that I was obliged to do something to ease the suffering. It bothered me most in the morning and perhaps for two or three hours after getting up. Too frequent action of the kidney secretions was very annoying and embarrassing. I had known people who had received the best results from Doan's Kidney Pills and I procured a box of them at Dr. Stone's drug store. Before I had used one box I was completely free from every symptom of the trouble. The kidneys were regulated and my general health became better. I can hardly express in words the good opinion I have of Doan's Kidney Pills for cases of kidney complaint or back-ache."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan—and take no other.

TO FIGHT FOR

GROSS EARNINGS LAW

The State Grange has appointed Judge A. S. Bennett of The Dalles, and J. H. Raiston of the firm of Raiston & Sidons, Washington, D. C., to assist the attorney-general in fighting the case brought by the Pacific States Telephone & Telegraph company against the gross earnings law, which will come up for argument in the United States supreme court after it is disposed of by the supreme court of Oregon.

The case brought by the telephone company directly attacks the initiative and referendum, and if the company wins in the United States court the law will be held unconstitutional. Unconstitutionality is the ground upon which the Pacific States company is bringing the case. The Oregon supreme court has already decided that the initiative and referendum is constitutional. This question was settled recently in the case of Caddery vs. The City of Portland.

Granulated Sore Eyes Cured.

"For 20 years I suffered from a bad case of granulated sore eyes," says Martin Boyd of Henrietta, Ky. "In February, 1903, a gentleman asked me to try Chamberlain's Salve. I bought one box and used about two-thirds of it and my eyes have not given me any trouble since." This salve is for sale by Dr. Stone's drug store.

Supreme Court.

Petition for rehearing was denied in the case of W. J. May v. Reuben Emerson, appealed from Baker county, and in the case of McMillan v. Batten, appealed from Multnomah county.

P. P. Allen v. the Standard Box & Lumber company, appealed from Multnomah county, reversed in opinion by Chief Justice Bean.

M. B. Rankin v. C. W. Nottingham, appealed from Multnomah county, affirmed in opinion by Chief Justice Bean.

Joe Hoskins v. William Scott, appealed from Jackson county, reversed in an opinion by Commissioner King.

Krebs Hop company v. R. J. Taylor, appealed from Polk county, affirmed in an opinion by Justice Moore.

A Faithful Friend.

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy since it was first introduced to the public in 1872, and have never found one instance where a cure was not speedily effected by its use. I have been a commercial traveler for 18 years, and never start out on a trip without this, my faithful friend," says H. S. Nichols of Oakland, Ind. Ter. When a man has used a remedy for 35 years he knows its value and is competent to speak. For sale by Dr. Stone's drug store.

LYONS GETS BOX

CAR FOR DEPOT

There is open war between the Corvallis & Eastern Railroad company and the citizens of Lyons. For two years the Lyons people have been endeavoring to get a depot at their town, and now that the Railroad Commission has compelled the company to furnish one, the C. & E. officials have handed the good people of Lyons an obsolete box car, to be used as a railway station. In a letter to the Railroad Commission this morning T. E. Wall of Lyons says: "I take pleasure in writing you a few lines to let you know that our depot has arrived; it came up this morning."

Mr. Wall objects to a depot being shipped to Lyons, and asks the commission what they are going to do about it. The matter will be taken under advisement.

For Sore Feet.

"I have found Bucklen's Arnica Salve to be the proper thing to use for sore feet, as well as for healing burns, sores, cuts, and all manner of abrasions," writes Mr. W. Stone, of East Poland, Maine. It is the proper thing, too, for piles. Try it! Sold under guarantee at J. C. Perry's drug store. 25c.
