

Lard Has Been in Existence a Long Time—So Has Indigestion

Human nature is hard to solve. People who are most particular about adapting the weight of their wearing apparel to the season and its conditions, who never think of going out in a storm without an umbrella and rubbers, who would not sit in a draft, will day after day eat lard-soaked food and not realize for an instant that it is clogging their whole inner machinery. Lard is produced from hog-fat, sometimes impure, always indigestible. Cottolene is the only rational frying and shortening medium in the world. It is made from refined vegetable oil and everything about it is digestible and conducive to health.

It will make pure, palatable, healthful food, and food which anyone can eat and enjoy without the after-pangs of a disordered stomach.

COTTOLENE is Guaranteed Your grocer is hereby authorized to refund your money in case you are not pleased, after having given Cottolene a fair test.

Never Sold in Bulk Cottolene is packed in pails with an airtight top to keep it clean, fresh and wholesome, and prevent it from catching dust and absorbing disagreeable odors, such as fish, oil, etc.

Cook Book Free For a 2c stamp, to pay postage, we will mail you our new "PURE FOOD COOK BOOK" edited and compiled by Mrs. Mary J. Lincoln, the famous Food Expert and containing nearly 300 valuable recipes.

"Nature's Gift from the Sunny South" same cast and in exactly the same manner that it was during its extended run at the Circle theater, New York city. Maude Lambert, the popular Broadway prima-donna, will sing the leading role and her two great song hits "Dearie" and "Just Some One" are sure to catch on here.

Another well known player who will assist the stars in the extraction of laughter is Billy Clifford, who will be seen as the tramp. A bevy of handsome chorus girls, who make a pretty background for the sumptuous stage settings, will add their charm to the performance by singing the many catchy numbers with which the piece is interspersed.

Kolb & Dill make the announcement that it is their intention to present this play with the same care and detail that they would at one of the big New York playhouses, because they wish to establish a reputation which will enable them to return later in the season with another production. Local theater-goers may therefore expect to see the brightest, breeziest and most up-to-date musical show that has ever been here when "Lonesome Town" is staged.

SUCCESSFUL DAIRY FARMER WHO WILL HAVE AUCTION

J. H. Rhoten who went onto the Geo. Crabtree ranch three miles northeast of Marion in 1900, has rented this fine dairy farm to Geo. Weatherill who took possession today, and has an auction sale of personal property Tuesday Oct. 6. He is a man who has employed modern methods of dairying and when he bought or bred horses or cattle has grown only the best breeds and used the best blood that money could buy. The result is that he has made money and has built up the farm by proper crops suitable for successful dairying. He has remodelled the house and barn and put in machinery to save labor and increase the profits. At the auction sale there will be Jersey cows, road and draft horses, Chester White swine and sheep, and farming machinery and implements. People who go to this sale will find some good stock offered, especially in the dairying line. 9-25&30-1w*

CABINETS

For filing letters, or card cases for loose ledger cards, are always used in offices where they file away letters and bills and keeps copies of those written in the office. We have some good ideas in the way of letter files, cabinets, letter copying presses, besides everything that could be called a blank book, from a pencil scratch tablet to a large double entry ledger.

KOLB AND DILL COMING TO SALEM

Fresh from their eastern conquests and after making critical Broadway bow at their feet for over 100 nights in a paroxysm of laughter, Kolb and Dill, the two funniest comedians on the American stage, will appear in this city next Monday evening at the Grand opera house in their most successful musical play entitled "Lonesome Town." The book is by the late Judson D. Bruce, while the tuneful music was penned by J. A. Raynes. These German dialect comedians made an instantaneous hit with this musical comedy in San Francisco, where it ran uninterruptedly for several months to crowded houses. Its Pacific coast success was later repeated in New York, Chicago and all of the other prominent cities of the east, and the critics throughout the country are unanimous in declaring "Lonesome Town" to be the liveliest bit of nonsense that has ever been attempted by these inimitable "slim" and "fat" representatives of German comedy. The story of the play deals with the disposition of a town in California, which bears the name of Watt's. The original owner disappears and the laughable attempts of the various fictitious claimants to prove their ownership is the basis for many extremely funny situations. The New York production has been brought to the coast intact and the play will be presented by the
