

FAIRMOUNT DOES THINGS TO TURNER

The Fairmount club, of this city, started the ball rolling yesterday afternoon when they went up to the town of Turner and put the cross on that bunch by a score of 7 to 6, in one of the most interesting games Turner has seen in a good many days.

In spite of the Turner team having several anti-Turner players on the grounds, the Fairmount lads went at them like a cyclone, and played them out of the greatest number of innings. Keeton in the box for Fairmount, and Looney for Turner, put up to the big crowd of spectators an excellent pitching game. Struck out by Keeton 6 and Looney 1. First on balls, off Keeton 1, Looney 1. The two young twirlers played the nine innings neck and neck, neither one showing any material gain over the other.

Another good feature of the game was the catching of Timm, a new Fairmount recruit. Young Timm, although being a catcher of more or less ability in the younger class, stood up to the racket like an old-timer yesterday and out-caught his opponent two to one.

The following is the summary of the game: Earned runs, Fairmount 1, Turner 3, 3-base hits, Rasmussen; left on bases, Fairmount 5, Turner 6; first on errors, Fairmount 7, Turner 4; 2-base hits, Arnold; double plays, Rasmussen to Daniels; passed balls,

CIRCUIT COURT CLEANS DOCKET

The circuit court met again this morning at 9 o'clock, and among the cases disposed of was that of Emil Schindler, indicted by the last grand jury on the charge of giving liquor to a minor. On motion of District Attorney John McNary, Schindler was discharged, there being no evidence against him, in the opinion of the district attorney to warrant a trial.

Judge Burnett set Wednesday, April 14th, on which to sentence Alex. McCarty and Wm. Tweedy, convicted of contributing to the delinquency of a delinquent child, as charged in the indictment. The laws of 1907, covering this crime, quotes the punishment at $1000 fine or one year in the county jail, or both jail imprisonment and fine.

The circuit court has about exhausted its docket for the April term of court, and the only criminal case left is that of the State vs. Roy Stewart, indicted on the charge of selling liquor to a minor. This case was brought up for trial this afternoon.

BLOOMER'S ADDITION to the City of Newport, Oregon, is now on the market for the first time. The tract is located about half way between Nye Creek and Newport, and consists of some 30 lots, on the rising ground directly above the ocean. Each lot is but a few steps from the beach and commands a view of the ocean or surf for miles north and south. To the north can be seen Jump Off Joe and the Yaquina Head Light. To the south the entrance to Yaquina Bay and the Lifesaving Station. The property is about a five-minute walk from the boat landing in Newport. It is reached by a new six-foot board walk, which runs in a straight line from the Ocean House Hotel in a northwest direction to the lots. This is now the most popular walk in Newport on account of its beautiful surroundings and magnificent view of the Pacific when the end is reached at BLOOMER'S ADDITION. Here before the observer the ocean and the beach stretch for miles and miles.

A WORD ABOUT YAQUINA BAY

You could not find a more interesting location to spend your summer than around this beautiful bay, which is conceded by those who know, to be the most beautiful summer resort, NATURALLY, of any on the Pacific coast, barring none. Hunting and fishing are unexcelled, and the many places of interest close to Newport, such as the Lighthouse, Otter Rock, Seal Rocks, etc., make it an ideal place to own a summer home.

NOW LOOK AT THE MAP

You will see that BLOOMER'S ADDITION is right on the ocean, and yet has the great advantage of being close to the bay and town, with no steep hills to climb to reach it. The beach in front of the property is good for bathing and the gathering of rock oysters. Mr. Bloomer has already built two beautiful cottages on these lots for his own personal use. Mr. Bloomer is a Seattle man, and intends to make this the most popular addition to Newport.

OLD JUNK MAN TALKS OF OLD JUNK GOODS

[United Press Leased Wire] San Francisco, April 12.—"A lot of old and worthless junk was wiped out by the great fire three years ago, and that so-called disaster will be looked upon as a blessing by San Francisco after a few years," declared Elbert Hubbard, editor of the Philistine, who is here today. "The great fire destroyed obsolete architecture, and it is going to give the world the best possible specimens of a modern city. And as you have destroyed the rats in San Francisco, so did the fire send away the weak-hearted, the sickly and the unfit. There are only live people in San Francisco today."
