

BLACKHAND CLOSES MOUTH OF WITNESS

[United Press Lensed Wire.]
Chicago, June 23.—When Bruno Nardi left Sicily some years ago he stood well in the estimation of his brother-in-law, the island branch of the Camorra. He had obeyed its every precept, and occasionally saw to it that others gave unwavering obedience to the society's decrees. That is why today he is changed from defier of the "black hand" to a trembling wretch who, even with the promise of immunity from punishment for murder, does not dare testify against a former fellow member of the secret band of assassins. Nardi went upon the witness stand yesterday afternoon, secure in the promise of the state that he would not be punished for his admitted share in the murder of Giuseppe Bertucci. He was to have told of the crime, and, to save his own neck, to have recounted how his companion, Vito Umbrello, shot down Bertucci.

Hardly had he taken his seat and faced Prosecutor Fleming for the ordeal when a figure appeared at a window of the court room, a mysterious sign was given the witness, a bandana handkerchief was waved, and with a gasp, Nardi collapsed.
"I won't testify," he mumbled in broken English. Threats, promises of protection by attorney and court failed to move him, and he was assisted from the stand pale and unstrung. Signora Nardi, the wife, was called, as it was thought Nardi had told her of the crime.

She started to speak but her husband, with a fierce gesture, cried "beware!" and the woman became dumb.
The trial halted, and, in order to allow the witnesses to regain their self-possession, was postponed. In the meantime efforts are being made to find the Italian who gave the mysterious signal that sealed the lips of the state's principal witness.

An advertisement in the Oregonian tells "how to brown hair without detection." If a Salem girl can get the dope, our niece says no one will ever catch her applying it.

You Never Can Tell

Just exactly the cause of your rheumatism, but you know you have it. Do you know that Ballard's Snow Liniment will cure it? relieves the pain—reduces the swelling and limbers the joints and muscles so that you will be as active and well as you ever were. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 Sold by all druggists.

Five pretty good men after the Salem postoffice—Farrar, Patton, Litchfield, Southwick, Roland. We really have no choice among them, and the price of stamps will remain the same.

Everyone would be benefited by taking Foley's Orino Laxative for constipation, stomach and liver trouble, as it sweetens the stomach and breath, gently stimulates the liver and regulates the bowels, and is much superior to pills and ordinary laxatives. Why not try Foley's Orino Laxative today? J. C. Perry Eugene still has a few blind pigs that the community would part with on easy terms on the installment plan.

Many of our citizens are drifting into Bright's disease by neglecting symptoms of kidney and bladder trouble which Foley's Kidney Remedy will quickly cure. J. C. Perry.

In sickness, if a certain hidden nerve goes wrong, then the organ that this nerve controls will also surely fail. It may be a stomach nerve, or it may have given strength to the heart and kidneys. It was Dr. Shoop that first pointed to this vital truth. Dr. Shoop's restorative was not made to dose the stomach nor to temporarily stimulate the heart or kidneys. That old-fashioned method is all wrong. Dr. Shoop's Restorative goes directly to those failing inside nerves. The remarkable success of this prescription demonstrates the wisdom of treating the actual cause of these failing organs. And it is indeed easy to prove. A simple five or ten-days' test will surely tell. Try at once, and see! Sold by Capital Drug Store.

The big derrick for the five-story steel building has been suggested as a proper instrument to handle the structures known as a stylish woman's hat.

Any lady reader of this paper will receive, on request, a clever "No-Drip" coffee strainer coupon privilege from Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. It is silver-plated, very pretty and positively prevents all dripping of tea or coffee. The doctor sends it with his new free book on "Health Coffee" simply to introduce this clever substitute for real coffee. Dr. Shoop's health Coffee is gaining its great popularity because of, first, its exquisite taste and flavor; second, its absolute healthfulness; third, its economy—1 1/2 lb 25c; fourth, its convenience. No tedious 20 to 30 minute boiling. "Made in a minute" says Dr. Shoop. Try it at your grocer's, for a pleasant surprise. J. W. Harritt.

Men Past Fifty in Danger.
Men past middle life have found comfort and relief in Foley's Kidney Remedy, especially for enlarged prostate gland, which is very common among elderly men. L. E. Morris, Dexter, Ky., writes: "Up to a year ago my father suffered from kidney and bladder trouble and several physicians pronounced it enlargement of the prostate gland, and advised an operation. On account of his age we were afraid he could not stand it, and I recommended Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the first bottle relieved him, and after taking the second bottle he was no longer troubled with this complaint."
