

ANOTHER AUTO TURNS TURTLE

Two are Killed and Seven Injured, One of Whom at Least, Will Most Probably Die.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Oakland, Cal., Oct. 15.—Two persons were killed and seven were severely injured early today when an automobile, speeding toward Oakland, on the Seminary road, crashed into a fire hydrant and hurled the occupants to the ground.

The dead:
Mrs. H. C. Edwards, 5321 Third street, Oakland.

N. Anargyros, Hotel St. Mark, Oakland.

Injured:
Mrs. Howard Cameron, Hotel St. Mark.

H. O. Abbott.

Mrs. H. O. Abbott.

O. R. B. Leiby, attorney.

Lusion Knuchel, Hotel St. Mark.

Henry Tischner, chauffeur.

When the tragic accident occurred the machine was speeding at 30 miles an hour. They had just struck a sharp curve on Hopkins street, in Elmhurst, which Tischner was attempting to negotiate when the heavy automobile skidded and crashed into the iron piece on the side of the street and turned turtle.

The passengers were thrown out on all sides. Mrs. Edwards was hurled in front of the careening machine. She struck on her head and died almost instantly.

Anargyros fell from his seat just before the automobile capsize. He was still alive when picked up, but died on the way to the hospital.

There was no help near, so those who were able to do so walked to the nearest telephone station and sent in call for aid. Automobiles were dispatched from Oakland and Alameda.

Anargyros is a cigar manufacturer, and is well known along the coast.

Mrs. Edwards was the wife of a prominent dentist of Oakland. She was a bride of six weeks.

Later reports are to the effect that Mrs. Cameron will die.

She Was Pleasantly Surprised.

Miss H. E. Bell, Waussau, Wis., writes: "Before I commenced to take Foley's Kidney Pills I had severe pains in my back, could not sleep, and was greatly troubled with headache. The first few drops of Foley's Kidney Pills gave me relief and two bottles cured me. The quick results surprised me and I can honestly recommend them." J. C. Perry.

* X RAYS AND SMILES *

With the champion ball game, the Johnson-Ketchel fight, Indian war dances, a bull fight, and the presidents of the two greatest American republics talking over the back fence, it may be considered by newspaper men as their busy day tomorrow.

Spain is tottering to her fall. It seems the lessons taught by the guillotine and the French revolution, and others since, that tyranny can go "so far and no farther," has been forgotten, and this time the lesson will be in Spanish.

President Taft is the "greatest white feather" the Indians ever owned, and they sure have had a queer collection in that line.

Taft tomorrow will meet one of the greatest men America ever produced.

There will be a bull fight at Juarez in honor of Taft tomorrow—but, after the bulls and bears of Wall street, it will prove a tame affair.
