MR. WEST HAD THE BACKING OF ACHIEVEMENT.

Oswald West was not only on the right side of the Assembly question but he had the backing of achievement for the people.

As State Land Agent he had used the office to ferret out land grabbers who had been protected by his predecessors.

He did the same thing in the office of Railroad Commissioner and convinced the people that he was fighting their battles.

His election ought to be a lesson to certain gentlemen who still imagine offices were created for some particular cult.

The administration of the office of Governor from the standpoint of the people ought to be extended to all the rest of the departments.

High-browed individuals who are still in "the-people-be-damned" attitude ought to get a perceptible hunch on this point.

Their theory that the people are not fit to rule but must be guided safely and steadily by "Assembly" is not believable.

An official who does something for the general public is not forgotten always by the masses who pay the fiddler.

THE SAD FATE OF TWO NORMAL SCHOOLS.

Two State Normal Schools have not been sustained by the people.

Returns show the Monmouth Normal School has been endorsed by popular vote.

The people of the state in turn have given them no support on their initiative bills.

It will be pretty hard to draw any conclusions from the whole matter favorable to the Normals.

The State finds itself with two valuable properties on its hands but no support for them.

The legislature will probably be slow to give them any support after the people have turned them down.

The Norma School board will probably have to dispose of the property of at least two of these schools.

The legislature might be induced to support one school after two of them have been disposed of.

But the people nor the legislature will be inclined to support three of the schools under any circumstances.

This in spite of the fact that in Lane county 78 per cent of the teachers in the public schools are only eighth grade pupils.

CAPITAL JOURNAL HAS BEEN ENDORSED.

Warning the people to have nothing to do with state-wide prohibition from the start, The Capital Journal has been endorsed by the people of Oregon.

Its editor as a candidate for governor, was outspoken on this point, and became the target for abuse from the professional dry orators and Prohibitionists.

It was easy to roast a man who had the courage of his opinion, and came out in the open and told the people where he stood on a question politicians were dodging.

But as the battle waxed hotter it began to appear that even more than the Assembly question, Prohibition was the burning issue in Oregon state affairs.

It took moral courage to come out and condemn a proposition that was being backed by the churches and advocated in the name of religion, and placarded in the cause of Christianity.

Every office-seeker was trimming his sails to catch the Prohibition vote and at the same time hold the affection of the saloon elements at the primary and election.

The election shows that sound argument and common sense have prevailed, and the state of Oregon is not going in to that glaring spotlight of freak commonwealths.

The Prohibitionists are not satisfied with a jug-handled Prohibition Local Option law, but wanted to extend their program of artificial dryness over the whole state.

But they have suffered a signal defeat, and the greatest hounding state in the Union has refused to take its stand for fanaticism on this question.

There should now be a pause in the campaign until all acts of the people have been officially accepted and proclaimed.

Then the road will be cleared for some wholesome legislation to regulate the traffic and reduce its abuses to a minimum.

That legislation should not be dictated by those who have fought under the banners of radicalism on either side.

IS CHARGED WITH ISSUING MONEY ORDERS

Charged with the wholesale and fraudulent issuance of money orders upon the Wells Fargo express company, in amounts varying from $1 to $20, the exact aggregate amount of which he does not know, C. S. Allison, the Wells Fargo express agent at West Woodburn station on the Oregon Electric is languishing in the Marion county jail and will be given an opportunity to explain before Justice Webster today and possibly before the grand jury and circuit court later on.

Allison, after committing his alleged depredations against the company and the discovery of the same by the company officials, departed to parts unknown, but he was located in Portland yesterday and Sheriff Minto went down to the metropolis yesterday afternoon and brought him back to this city today. Allison has no explanation to offer for his actions and has no idea how many of the bad money orders he has placed in circulation, nor the aggregate amount of money involved, but it is said that the orders are still floating around in Woodburn.

SALOON MAN THREATENED WITH DEATH

Portland, Ore., Nov. 12.—Plain clothes men guarded "Pete" Bruno, a wealthy saloon man today while the police scoured the north end for the author of a threatening letter received by Bruno in which he was told to deposit $1,000 in currency in the mail box of a lodging house on First street. If he failed, the writer threatened Bruno with death.

The saloon man turned the epistle over to the police and on advice of detectives placed a bulky envelope containing newspaper clippings in the designated place. Plain clothes men waited nearby until early today but the author of the letter did not make an appearance.

The police believe that Bruno is the marked victim of a foreigner. Monday night R. Petril, an Italian cook, was murdered on the sidewalk directly in front of Bruno's saloon. The murderer escaped. In recalling incidents of the tragedy Bruno said he believed the murderer of Petril was the author of the letter received by him. He based his theory on the fact that a few moments after Petril had been shot down, a foreigner dashed into his saloon and gesticulating wildly, ran to where Bruno was sitting and exclaimed: "You kill him! You kill him! You pay for this!"

Among the buildings reported burned at Leinhou are the American Presbyterian church, college and hospital. The missionaries there are Dr. Machle, Dr. Ross, Mrs. Ross, Mr. Kunkle, Mr. and Mrs. Edwards and Miss Elda Patterson.

CHINESE RIOTERS MAKING TROUBLE

[UNITED PRESS LEASER WIRE] Hong Kong, Nov. 12.—Belated advice from Leinhou, Province of Kwang Su, report that Chinese rioters have burned and demolished a number of American buildings. Missionaries are reported to have fled in boats to Canton. Three battalions have left Canton for Kwang Su to quell the disturbers, who are reported to be hastening toward Tsoi Yuen Po to attack the missionaries there.

Among the buildings reported burned at Leinhou are the American Presbyterian church, college and hospital. The missionaries there are Dr. Machle, Dr. Ross, Mrs. Ross, Mr. Kunkle, Mr. and Mrs. Edwards and Miss Elda Patterson.

FOOTBALL GAME PRINCETON VS. YALE

[UNITED PRESS LEASER WIRE] Princeton, N. J., Nov. 12.—Princeton is expected to slaughter Yale today. On form there is not much to choose between the teams, Yale outweighing Princeton two-elevenths of a pound to the man. Both teams are fit, but the condition of the Tigers is believed to be better than that of Yale. Princeton is the betting favorite at 3 to 5, some offering as good as 2 to 5. It is estimated that the attendance, judging from advance sales, will be 30,000.

A PESTIFEROUS GERM.

Burrows Up the Scalp Into Dandruff and Saps the Hair's Vitality. People who complain of falling hair as a rule do not know that it is the result of dandruff, which is caused by a pestiferous parasite burrowing up the scalp as it digs down to the sheath in which the hair is fed in the scalp. Before long the hair root is shriveled up and the hair drops out. If the work of the germ is not destroyed hair keeps thinning till baldness comes. The only way to cure dandruff is to kill the germ, and until now there has been no hair preparation that would do it; but today dandruff is easily eradicated by Newbro's Herpicide, which makes hair glossy and soft as silk. Sold by leading druggists.

Send 10 cents in stamps for sample to The Herpicide company, Detroit, Mich. One dollar bottles guaranteed.—J. C. Perry, Special Agent.

GETTING READY TO OPEN THE POSTAL BANKS

Washington, Nov. 12.—While the locations of the first postal savings banks, one in each state and territory, have been chosen, and it is probable that the banks will be opened at the beginning of 1911, much work remains to be done in the development of the system, according to one of the trustees.

A problem that is taxing the trustees and the solution of which is awaited with great interest by bankers, concerns the deposit of postal funds in banks. The law provides that 65 per cent of the funds, "shall be deposited in solvent banks, whether organized under national or state laws, being subject to national or state supervision and examinations." The word "banks" includes savings banks and trust companies.

The solvency of national banks will probably be determined by the Comptroller of the Currency, who has charge of the National Bank Examiners. The best method for ascertaining the condition of other banks has not been determined. One plan suggested provides for the cooperation of the controller or some other governmental agency with the state banking departments.

There are many bankers who are anxious that the method for determining the question of solvency shall be thorough and guarded to protect impartially the interests of all banks. Unless that is done they fear that some future board of trustees may possibly make the power to decide as to solvency a basis for favoritism in the distribution of postal bank funds.

THE Y. M. C. A. WILL HAVE A BUSY WINTER

About 75 members of the Y. M. C. A. sat down to a membership dinner in the dining room of the association last evening at 6:30. After enjoying to the utmost the dinner provided, at the suggestion of the Secretary, each member introduced himself to the gathering with a short statement of his name, his occupation and his relation to the association. An interesting discussion followed regarding the means of making the association mean as much to the young men of the city as it should, and several new plans for a forward movement of the organization were discussed.

Next week is the association week of prayer, observed by the entire organization. The local association will begin the services of the week with a prayer-meeting Sunday afternoon at 3:15. At 4 p. m. Rev. O. A. Stillman will address a men's meeting on the subject: "A Red-Headed Boy, and His Worth to the World."

Prayer-meetings will be held each evening of the coming week at the association rooms at 7:30. The concert to be given this evening by the Central Concert Company under the auspices of the association promises to be a most enjoyable affair. It is the opening number of the entertainment course to be given this winter by the association. The course will consist of six numbers, the next one being a lecture by Judge Ben Lindsay of Denver, on December 6.

AN EASY AND HARMLESS WAY TO DARKEN THE HAIR.

Who does not know of the value of sage and sulphur for keeping the hair dark, soft, glossy and in good condition? As a matter of fact, sulphur is a natural element of hair, and a deficiency of it in the hair is held by many scalp specialists to be connected with loss of color and vitality of the hair. Unquestionably, there is no better remedy for hair and scalp troubles, especially premature grayness, than sage and sulphur, if properly prepared. The Wash Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, put up an ideal preparation of this kind, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur. It is sold by all leading druggists for 50c and $1.00 a bottle, or is sent direct by the manufacturers upon receipt of price.
