Congratulations: Salem has a Humane Society, and there will be less cruelty to animals.

The average citizen who does not take the trouble to go to a school election is now kicking himself or herself for the defeat of the High School addition by only two votes.

No matter about the price, gentlemen. We all have our own ideas about what a thing is worth. But give us public ownership of water at any price. You sometimes have to pay something to change an unfavorable condition of things.

Hurrah for Astoria! The senate bill gives that city $50,000 for the proper celebration of the centennial. That was well managed by Senator Lester. Every vote from Marion county will stand by Clatsop county in that undertaking.

A clean city, without any drunks, high or low, and the same laws for the saloon man, the druggist and the social clubs, is what Salem is driving at. The chief of police and the mayor deserve commendation for their efforts to enforce laws with equal justice to all.

A little attention to what President Hill of the Great Northern said about advertising by the state would be a good thing. The cars sent out by the Hill lines are visited by about a thousand people daily, and, besides, the literature of that great corporation and the land companies of the state should give them some information about Oregon products, climate, resources, lands and people. Some pamphlets in German and Scandinavian would help along.

To hear Senator Dimick talk it is all wrong to destroy commercial fisheries at Oregon City. To hear Senator Sinnott talk it is all wrong to destroy commercial fisheries on the upper Columbia. To hear Senator Chase talk it is all wrong to destroy the commercial fisheries on the Rogue river. Is it not wrong for any state or community to destroy any honorable industry in any part of the state. The people even voted that it was wrong for the Prohibitionists to destroy the hop industry and the brewing industry. Let us quit destroyin industries in Oregon. There is one industry we could get along without, and that is the wholesale manufacture of laws by the Oregon City law factory.

A PLEA FOR WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

The Oregon registration law, the Direct Primary law, and the Australian ballot law, are very cumbersome, and keep many persons from voting.

Several registrations annually are required in many of our cities.

The holding of primary elections on Saturday afternoon is a rank injustice to laborers and farmers.

The naturalization law makes it almost impossible for an alien to take out citizenship papers.

Sons of naturalized citizens find it necessary in some counties to produce the father's naturalization papers.

All such laws restrict the suffrage of persons, otherwise good citizens, loyal men, patriots and taxpayers.

Any law that prevents an ordinary law-abiding citizen from voting is a blow at free institutions.

There is not a member of the legislature but knows that these laws shut out about one-fourth the voters in each city and precinct in Oregon.

Naturalization, registration, primary and election laws are all troublesome, exclusive, restrictive, expensive and destructive to manhood suffrage.

Human intelligence is all from the Father of Lights, and is a divine gift to make government possible.

Laws to shut out a single human being from enjoyment of the franchise are a crime against God and man.

The number of persons who are shut out from voting is growing larger each year.

At special elections it is almost impossible to get the voters out to the polls—as at the Salem school election yesterday.

What becomes of our boasted freedom and blood-bought citizenship, when we cannot exercise it without wading through oceans of red tape?

What becomes of the franchise—the very shield of our liberties—when we cannot cast a ballot without great trouble?

Ask yourself, can I go to the polls and vote at the next election day?

Am I interested, am I naturalized, was my father naturalized, am I in the right precinct? And so on for an hundred questions

Ask the average voter if he can vote at the next election? He will hesitate and begin to inquire when the next registration begins.

Then when he goes to register he must enroll himself as a Republican or a Democrat, or be excluded from the primaries.

So it goes on, restriction after restriction, shackle after shackle, until the splendid privilege of a free-born citizen is reduced to a lamentable farce.

LOST HIS EAR RINGS AND HIS MONEY, TOO

New York, Feb. 1.—Raphael Yobino, a Brooklyn furniture dealer, is convinced today that it is useless for a fat man to play detective. Yobino was recently robbed of a $75 pair of earrings, two gold watches and $50. He resolved to be his own thief-catcher, and placed three marked bills on a table in his bedroom. Then he crawled under the bed.

Harry Koss, 15, entered the room, Yobino says, and took the money. He tried to pursue the boy, but couldn't. He twisted and wringed, but the more he struggled, the tighter he became wedged under the bed. Neighbors pulled him out with difficulty.

While it is often impossible to prevent an accident, it is never impossible to be prepared—it is not beyond any one's purse. Invest 25 cents in a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment and you are prepared for sprains, bruises and like injuries. Sold by all dealers.

BOND ISSUE IS LOST BY TWO VOTES

THIS IS UNOFFICIAL AND MAY POSSIBLY BE CHANGED—ONLY 339 VOTES WERE CAST; 166 AGAINST, 164 FOR.

A special meeting of the school board will be held this evening for the purpose of canvassing the vote cast yesterday upon the question of issuing bonds for the erection of an addition to the high school. The unofficial figures show that the issue was lost by two votes, but it is believed that when the board canvasses the vote this evening that a mistake may be found and that it will be in favor of the issue.

The vote by wards was as follows:

Ward	No.	Yes
Ward 1	9	18
Ward 2	15	51
Ward 3	5	14
Ward 4	28	22
Ward 5	32	23
Ward 6	55	24
Ward 7	22	12

ENGLISH JURY WHITEWASHES KING GEORGE

London, Feb. 1.—Edward Mylius was today convicted of having criminally libeled King George by publishing statements that the king was morganatically married to the daughter of Admiral Seymour while George was a member of the royal navy stationed at Malta in 1890.

The article was published in the Liberator, an anti-monarchical paper published in Paris and circulated in England.

Mylius refused to withdraw the statement before trial.

Mylius was convicted on all of three charges lodged against him and was sentenced to one year's imprisonment.

Chief Justice Lord Alverstone presided at the trial, with Mylius conducting his own defense. Attorney-General Isaacs, Solicitor-General Simon and King's Counsel Rowlatt and Muir represented the crown.

Although the trial of Mylius was supposedly public, it was really secret, and none were admitted to the court room except a select few. Even Home Secretary Churchill had difficulty in securing a seat.

The first procedure in the case was the selection of a special jury. Mylius insisted on his legal right to question the jurors as to whether they could render an impartial verdict, but this was refused by Lord Alverstone. The alleged libeller then demanded the return of letters which had been taken from him when he was arrested. This also was refused and when he demanded that King George be brought before the court in person he was frowned down unceremoniously.

King's Counsel Rowlatt opened for the crown and in a long speech purported to give proofs that the king had not been married in Malta.

Mylius, apparently realizing that his chance of acquittal was slim in any event, contented himself with general declarations and admitted that his proofs of King George's previous alliance with the daughter of Admiral Seymour were slight, maintaining that the records of the marriage had been destroyed.

The trial was very brief and after only a short discussion the jury brought in its verdict of guilty.

After sentence had been pronounced Mylius said "the king's absence made it impossible for him to present an adequate defense. "It would have been of no use anyway," he said. "Even indisputable proof would have been of no avail."

Backache, Rheumatism, Sleeplessness

Result from disordered kidneys. Foley Kidney Pills have helped others, they will help you. Mrs. J. B. Miller, Syracuse, N. Y., says, "For a long time I suffered with kidney trouble and rheumatism. I had severe backaches and felt all played out. After taking two bottles of Foley Kidney Pills my backache is gone and where I used to lie awake with rheumatic pains I now sleep in comfort." Foley Kidney Pills are a reliable remedy for backache, rheumatism and urinary irregularities. They are tonic in action, quick in results and afford a prompt relief from all kidney disorders.

THE COLLEGE OF ORATORY ENTERTAINMENT

The College of Oratory of Williamette University, gave one of the best recitals in its history in the chapel of the university last evening. The large chapel was crowded to the doors and even those standing during the entire recital expressed the greatest appreciation of the endeavors of the students.

The comedietta entitled, "Frank Glynn's Wife" was a brilliant success and the performers conducted themselves in a decidedly professional manner. The part of Norah, the Irish maid, taken by Miss Alice Judd was remarkably well performed and Miss Vandervoort as a middle-aged lady was great.

Miss Hazelle Erickson in her inimitably entertaining way created a great deal of admiration as did Miss Longbridge as leading lady, John McNeis and Paul Blanchard were the star performers and both showed fine talent.

Miss Erma Shumway sang, "A Perfect Day" in her always clear, sweet voice. Blanche Liston showed superior talent as a reader in her selection: "Mrs. Trimble Buys Her Husband a Christmas Present." Robin Day and Glenn Wells were both heartily applauded.

The program was as follows:

- Plano Duet.....Beethoven
- Misses Edgington and Bradley
- "Two Home Comings".....Donnel
- Lois Ashby
- "The Story Alice Ist Made Up".....Riby
- Emma Loughridge
- Vocal solo "My Laddie".....Thayer

POLLY'S PANTS WOULD DO FOR GRANDFATHER

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]

New York, Feb. 1.—The "trousers skirt" has hit Broadway. Mrs. Polly Sangreen, for some years a Parisian, sprung the new fad when she stepped out of her automobile to buy theater seats. A big crowd gathered. Some cheered, some booed.

"For the life of me I cannot see why people laugh at the most sensible dress women have ever worn," said Mrs. Sangreen pliqued. "It doesn't look bad, does it?"

The garment was divided to about 20 inches from the ground. The accompanying coat was a Tuxedo effect. A negligee shirt, collar and tie completed the outfit.

We've A Grip On The Shoe Trade

We hold our trade by force of merit—we make it advantageous to buy Shoes here.

Our Shoes are trade keepers.

There's a difference between Shoes that are trade keepers and Shoes that are trade winners.

A trade winning Shoe is a Shoe sold for a little money—a cheap Shoe that gives no satisfaction, it wins trade just once.

Trade keeping Shoes are Shoes that give the buyer full value for his money—look Well, fit well and wear well.

We sell only good, standard Shoes—we stick to them and people stick to us, and by this method we KEEP OUR GRIP on the Shoe trade.

We're growing solidly and well, for the best Shoes for the money have done their work.

If you want a large measure of satisfaction for your Shoe money, come to the store where nothing but good Shoes are sold.
