

SUPREME COURT PASSES UPON SEVEN CASES

Declaring 22 ten-dollar gold pieces found in a warehouse at Rainier by R. H. Roberson to be "treasure trove," and to be the property of the discoverer against all persons save the owner, the supreme court this morning affirmed the judgment of the circuit court of Columbia county in the case of R. H. Roberson against Mike Ellis.

Roberson was employed by Ellis in removing some merchandise and furniture from a warehouse when he discovered the money. Upon condition that Ellis would return the money to him should no owner be found, he surrendered it to him. Ellis had a brother, Tom, who was absent at the time, and upon his return he claimed to Roberson that the money belonged to him—that he had secreted it in the warehouse, and declined to give it back to Roberson. Roberson brought an action for its recovery, the jury found in his favor, and the supreme court now affirms the verdict of the jury.

Six Other Decisions.
The supreme court also rendered decisions in six other cases, and they were as follows:

R. L. Wells, respondent, against the Great Northern Railway company, an action from Multnomah county, brought to recover damages to the amount of $469.70 for the loss of a trunk, affirmed.

J. J. Walton, appellant against George L. Moore, from Lane county, petition for rehearing denied.

Nevada Ditch Company against Canyon & Sand Hollow Ditch company, from Malheur county, and involving certain water rights, lower court affirmed.

Anthony Hardy against Annie and John Sheedy, from Multnomah county, and brought to recover a commission for sale of real property, judgment of circuit court reversed.

S. B. Cobb, respondent, against Sophia H. Klosterman, et al., from Multnomah, and involving title to real property, lower court affirmed.

THE CAMP AT SAN ANTONIO A DRILL GROUND

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE]
San Antonio, Tex., March 14.—The encampment about San Antonio has been turned into a vast drill ground and today raw recruits with rifles and spick new uniforms are going through the manual. The recruits are arriving hourly and are being assigned to regiments and given arms and kits, while the skeleton companies are growing to full war strength.

The arrival of the Fourth cavalry from El Paso has caused considerable comment among observers. The Fourth was not among those originally called out, and observers are wondering how many other regiments may slip in unobtrusively in response to secret orders.

The camp itself is settling down to routine. Four field hospitals have been established. Foreign military attaches were expected to arrive this afternoon. Among them, it was expected, would be representatives of England, Germany, France, Italy, Russia and Sweden.

Not a Word of Scandal

Marred the call of a neighbor on Mrs. W. P. Spough, of Manville, Wyo., who said: "She told me Dr. King's New Life Pills had cured her of obstinate kidney trouble, and made her feel like a new woman." Easy but sure remedy for stomach, liver and kidney trouble. Only 25c at J. C. Perry's.

PLAN PARKING IN CENTER OF EAST COURT

The improvement of East Court street is the uppermost topic among property owners on that thoroughfare. It has been pretty generally agreed that the street is to be opened full width to Eighteenth street. There is a plan being talked up among some of the abutters for a 20-foot parking in the center of the street, with a 20-foot drive on each side of it. That would be the first improvement of that kind in the city and it is gaining favor. The project to open the street through to the penitentiary has been abandoned by the committee, as they believe the property owners of the whole street should stand for the expense of widening and opening.

WORK SHORT HOURS ON SOUTHERN PACIFIC

Los Angeles, Calif., March 14.—Acting under orders from general headquarters, employes of the motive and car departments of the Southern Pacific railway today began working eight hours a day and five days a week. Lack of work was the explanation by railroad officials. About 1,000 men are affected.

WILL TRY TO FORCE SALE OR IMPROVEMENT

Resolutions have been put through the city council and referred to the city attorney with instructions to exhaust the resources of the charter to condemn and abate the shacks on the corner of State and Liberty, owned by the Vieri estate. All efforts of the State Bank and Trust company to buy that property at the price it was offered at, $35,000, have proven unavailing, and it is understood the latest raise is to $40,000. The county assessor has been enlisted and will attempt under the Single Tax amendment of the constitution to double the valuation, from $25,000 to $50,000, which is about the value of similar property on the other corners of the same street. Some properties of 85 feet front are assessed from $60,000 to $75,000, and the Vieri property may go to that. Mayor Lachmund and the council are determined to exhaust the resources of the charter to not only wipe out the shacks but to make non-progressive holders of speculative properties sell them at a reasonable figure. The Salem Bank and Trust company is prepared to erect a fine modern bank building on the property if it can buy it at $35,000, which it considers is a big price for the property.

There was a continual pain across my back and hips and my kidneys gave me much distress, and the action of my bladder was frequent and most painful. Since being cured I have recommended Foley's Kidney Pills to many of my railroad friends." Red Cross Pharmacy.
