CHIEF AND DISTRICT ATTORNEY AT WAR

Fickert Says White Refused to Take Action When He Heard of Graft in Police Force.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]

San Francisco, June 27.—Secret war, which has been on for weeks between District Attorney C. M. Fickert and Chief of Police D. A. White here, was openly revealed here today, when Police Judge Deasy discharged August Jouanou, a special agent for the district attorney, charged with carrying concealed weapons.

"Jouanou is the man who gave the first information of the disgraceful alliance between the police and the bunco men," Fickert declared today. "He told me his story only after Chief White had repeatedly refused to heed his complaint. I investigated his charges, and the result so far has been the imprisonment of six policemen."

The most important witness examined in the conspiracy trial of Arthur MacPhee and Charles Taylor, suspended detectives, up to noon today, was Jack McManus, former assemblyman, and said to be a close friend of Chief of Police White. McManus admitted that he still retains a half interest in the Barbary Coast Jupiter cafe where it is alleged grafting policemen and Italian bunco men had their rendezvous. A number of character witnesses also were heard.

District Attorney Fickert announced today that immunity would ultimately be granted to Chito Rovigo, the so-called "boy agent of the bunco ring," who was brought back from St. Louis, in return for his testimony in the graft trials here.

Many charges are resting against Rovigo in St. Louis and New York, but it is intimated that these may be dismissed, and the 19-year-old bunco man given a chance to start life anew.

COOL THEODORE CARRIES GUN

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]

New York, June 27.—Magistrate Corrigan confirmed today reports that Colonel Theodore Roosevelt and District Attorney Whitman have permission to go armed. Judge Corrigan said he "took a chance" when the permits were issued, and did not demand certificates of good character.

SPORTS

ODDS ON FIGHT OF BUD AND CROSS

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]

Los Angeles, June 27.—Articles of agreement for the Cross-Anderson July 4 match at Vernon were not signed as expected today. The failure of Dick Donald, manager of Bud Anderson, who is ill at Venice, to come up town to sign the articles caused a postponement until Donald is able to be present.

Indicating just how widely the fans differ regarding the possibilities of the scrap between Bud Anderson and Leach Cross, it is necessary only to cite the odds that are being quoted in various quarters. In some places Anderson is quoted at 10 to 8, while in other places Cross is the favorite at the same odds. Wagers have been reported for fair sums at each set of odds.

Undoubtedly the market will settle down to a definite basis in a few more days, and it is quite likely that the local backing that is sure to show up for Anderson will make him the favorite at about the odds that are now quoted wherever he is the choice.

KIDNAPERS CAUGHT.

Chicago, June 27.—An attempt by three Italians to kidnap Angelina Di Maggio, a 20-year-old girl, was frustrated here today by the police. All of the would-be captors were arrested. One of the prisoners, Philip Dotorio, said the girl had refused his offer of marriage. The attempt of the kidnapers, who were in an automobile, was made as the girl left her home to go to work.

NO QUORUM.

Washington, June 27.—No quorum again today prevented action by the house judiciary committee on the resolution by Congressman Kahn, calling upon the president to produce all correspondence relative to the McNab-McReynolds embroglio. Chairman Clayton will make a special effort to gather a quorum to morrow.

The United States has been a good old big uncle to those Latin-American republics, yet they don't love him a little bit.
