

The Daily Capital Journal

Today's News
Printed Today

Full
Leased Wire
Dispatches

THIRTY-SEVENTH YEAR

SALEM, OREGON, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 1914.

ON TRAINS AND NEWS
PRICE TWO CENTS STANDS FIVE CENTS

TWO GREAT BATTLES IN PROGRESS

Russians and Austrians in Death Grip Along the River San

Twilight falls on fifth day of fight between allies and Germans with no decisive advantage to either.

ITALY MUST GRAB IF IT WOULD HOLD

If Italy Would Join Allies It Would Help Bring Peace Much Quicker

Petrograd, Sept. 18.—Russian newspapers chorused a demand today that Italy join the allies against Germany and Austria-Hungary.

INTIMATES KAISER WOULD WELCOME PEACE OVERTURES

Germany's Imperial Chancellor Broaches Subject to American Ambassador

Washington, Sept. 18.—President Wilson was "extremely hopeful" today that real progress toward European peace may come from Germany's informal suggestion that the United States undertake to elicit from Great Britain, France and Russia a statement of the terms under which the allies would make peace.

STORY OF THE WAR TOLD BRIEFLY FOR JOURNAL READERS

The War's and the World's Greatest Battle Rages at End of Fifth Day

Wounded exposed to rain and wind. Thousands are dead, and more thousands wounded—end not in sight.

BRITISH PREVENT BREAKING OF LINES

Extent of British Losses Not Made Known But They Are Said to Be Enormous

(By Ed L. Keen.) London, Sept. 18.—The British had again prevented General Von Kluck and his Germans from breaking the Franco-British allies' line in Northern France, the war office stated this afternoon.

BLOODIEST BATTLE OF THE WAR

Battle of Aisne Now In Its Fifth Day With No Decisive Results

GERMAN ARMY 1,100,000 ALLIES HAVE 1,500,000

EMERGENCY RATE ASKED FOR FRUIT

The entire northwest and all fruit interests are lining up in support of the emergency fruit rate as requested by the Northwestern Fruit Exchange, is evidenced by the fact that they are receiving cooperation from every hand.

GERMANS SAY FIGHT STILL INDECISIVE

Claims French Attacks Are Weakening and Germans Growing Steadily

THE WEATHER

Oregon: Rain tonight and Saturday; cooler Saturday; strong southerly winds.

ITALY MUST GRAB IF IT WOULD HOLD

Petrograd, Sept. 18.—Russian newspapers chorused a demand today that Italy join the allies against Germany and Austria-Hungary.

INTIMATES KAISER WOULD WELCOME PEACE OVERTURES

Washington, Sept. 18.—President Wilson was "extremely hopeful" today that real progress toward European peace may come from Germany's informal suggestion that the United States undertake to elicit from Great Britain, France and Russia a statement of the terms under which the allies would make peace.

STORY OF THE WAR TOLD BRIEFLY FOR JOURNAL READERS

The War's and the World's Greatest Battle Rages at End of Fifth Day

BRITISH PREVENT BREAKING OF LINES

Extent of British Losses Not Made Known But They Are Said to Be Enormous

BLOODIEST BATTLE OF THE WAR

Battle of Aisne Now In Its Fifth Day With No Decisive Results

EMERGENCY RATE ASKED FOR FRUIT

The entire northwest and all fruit interests are lining up in support of the emergency fruit rate as requested by the Northwestern Fruit Exchange, is evidenced by the fact that they are receiving cooperation from every hand.

GERMANS SAY FIGHT STILL INDECISIVE

Claims French Attacks Are Weakening and Germans Growing Steadily

THE WEATHER

Oregon: Rain tonight and Saturday; cooler Saturday; strong southerly winds.

ITALY MUST GRAB IF IT WOULD HOLD

Petrograd, Sept. 18.—Russian newspapers chorused a demand today that Italy join the allies against Germany and Austria-Hungary.

INTIMATES KAISER WOULD WELCOME PEACE OVERTURES

Washington, Sept. 18.—President Wilson was "extremely hopeful" today that real progress toward European peace may come from Germany's informal suggestion that the United States undertake to elicit from Great Britain, France and Russia a statement of the terms under which the allies would make peace.

STORY OF THE WAR TOLD BRIEFLY FOR JOURNAL READERS

The War's and the World's Greatest Battle Rages at End of Fifth Day

BRITISH PREVENT BREAKING OF LINES

Extent of British Losses Not Made Known But They Are Said to Be Enormous

BLOODIEST BATTLE OF THE WAR

Battle of Aisne Now In Its Fifth Day With No Decisive Results

EMERGENCY RATE ASKED FOR FRUIT

The entire northwest and all fruit interests are lining up in support of the emergency fruit rate as requested by the Northwestern Fruit Exchange, is evidenced by the fact that they are receiving cooperation from every hand.

GERMANS SAY FIGHT STILL INDECISIVE

Claims French Attacks Are Weakening and Germans Growing Steadily

THE WEATHER

Oregon: Rain tonight and Saturday; cooler Saturday; strong southerly winds.

ITALY MUST GRAB IF IT WOULD HOLD

Petrograd, Sept. 18.—Russian newspapers chorused a demand today that Italy join the allies against Germany and Austria-Hungary.

INTIMATES KAISER WOULD WELCOME PEACE OVERTURES

Washington, Sept. 18.—President Wilson was "extremely hopeful" today that real progress toward European peace may come from Germany's informal suggestion that the United States undertake to elicit from Great Britain, France and Russia a statement of the terms under which the allies would make peace.

STORY OF THE WAR TOLD BRIEFLY FOR JOURNAL READERS

The War's and the World's Greatest Battle Rages at End of Fifth Day

BRITISH PREVENT BREAKING OF LINES

Extent of British Losses Not Made Known But They Are Said to Be Enormous

BLOODIEST BATTLE OF THE WAR

Battle of Aisne Now In Its Fifth Day With No Decisive Results

EMERGENCY RATE ASKED FOR FRUIT

The entire northwest and all fruit interests are lining up in support of the emergency fruit rate as requested by the Northwestern Fruit Exchange, is evidenced by the fact that they are receiving cooperation from every hand.

GERMANS SAY FIGHT STILL INDECISIVE

Claims French Attacks Are Weakening and Germans Growing Steadily

THE WEATHER

Oregon: Rain tonight and Saturday; cooler Saturday; strong southerly winds.