

Full Leased Wire Dispatches

The Daily Capital Journal

Today's News Printed Today

THIRTY-SEVENTH YEAR

SALEM, OREGON, MONDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1914

PRICE TWO CENTS

ON TRAINS AND NEWS STANDS - FIVE CENTS

RUSSIANS CLAIM GREAT VICTORY ON BANKS OF VISTULA

Say Kaiser's Advance Checked and Twelve Thousand Prisoners Taken

ANOTHER BLOODY BATTLE IS RAGING

Also Claim Situation in East Prussia Is Improved by Swamps Freezing

GERMANS DENY IT. Berlin, via The Hague, Nov. 23.—Answering Russian claims of an overwhelming victory in Russian Poland between the Vistula and the Warthe rivers, the war office here announced...

Only One Question. Petrograd, Nov. 23.—It is only a question of how many Germans escaped, asserted reports today telling of an overwhelming Russian victory between the Vistula and Warthe rivers.

Another bloody battle was reported still raging along the line between Czenstochowa and Cracow.

Continued Russian successes, it was asserted, were marking this engagement.

In East Prussia. Petrograd, Nov. 23.—Fresh Russian successes in East Prussia were claimed here today.

Stole the Money to Prepare for Ministry. Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 23.—Charged with participation in the theft of gold bullion worth $20,000, Clarence Loyt, 22, a Christian Endeavor and Sunday school worker, is in jail here today.

CHALLENGES WASHINGTON

Corvallis, Ir., Nov. 23.—Dr. E. J. Stewart, athletic director and coach of the undefeated O. A. C. football team today issued a challenge to the University of Washington for a game December 5 to decide the disputed northwestern championship.

ROY HARDCASTLE KILLED BY ACCIDENT

While out hunting with some boys of about his age Sunday afternoon, Roy Hardcastle, aged 15 years, was accidentally shot with a shotgun which he was carrying and was instantly killed.

FIGHT NEAR SUEZ CANAL

Battles were described at El Kantara 25 miles south of Port Said, and between Katas and Testaba, about eight miles east of the canal.

HOP GROWERS TAKE STOCK IN COMPANY

Ten Thousand Dollars Subscribed at Once—Organization Sure of Success

Hop growers from all sections of the Willamette Valley, representing Benton, Linn, Lane, Marion, Polk, Washington and Yamhill counties, which filled the assembly room of the commercial club to "standing room only," Saturday afternoon, unanimously voted to organize the Oregon Hop Growers' Association.

Furthermore, the original delegation of nine representative hop growers of Oregon, composed of E. V. G. Paul, of Beed, and W. K. Kirkwood, of Amity, Yamhill county; C. G. Good, of Dalhart, H. B. Fletcher, of Independence, Fred N. Stump, of Saver, Polk county; L. H. McMahan, Salem; M. L. Jones, of Brooks, Marion county; J. L. Clark, Springfield, Lane county; and B. Cartwright, of Harrisburg, Linn county, was authorized to proceed with the work of organization and signing up stock subscribers.

Another bloody battle was reported still raging along the line between Czenstochowa and Cracow.

Continued Russian successes, it was asserted, were marking this engagement.

In East Prussia. Petrograd, Nov. 23.—Fresh Russian successes in East Prussia were claimed here today.

Stole the Money to Prepare for Ministry. Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 23.—Charged with participation in the theft of gold bullion worth $20,000, Clarence Loyt, 22, a Christian Endeavor and Sunday school worker, is in jail here today.

CHALLENGES WASHINGTON

Corvallis, Ir., Nov. 23.—Dr. E. J. Stewart, athletic director and coach of the undefeated O. A. C. football team today issued a challenge to the University of Washington for a game December 5 to decide the disputed northwestern championship.

ROY HARDCASTLE KILLED BY ACCIDENT

While out hunting with some boys of about his age Sunday afternoon, Roy Hardcastle, aged 15 years, was accidentally shot with a shotgun which he was carrying and was instantly killed.

AMERICAN TROOPS LEAVE VERA CRUZ SOMETIME TONIGHT

General Aguilar with 8,000 Is Waiting Near City Ready to Take Charge

THIS WILL NOT DELAY FUNSTON COMPLETES

Hundreds of Refugees Arriving Ask for Transportation to United States

Vera Cruz, Mex., Nov. 23.—As Uncle Sam's soldiers marched aboard eight American transports here today, preparatory to evacuating Vera Cruz, General Aguilar, commanding 8,000 Mexican constitutionalists, waited just outside the city limits to take over the government of the city.

Furthermore, the original delegation of nine representative hop growers of Oregon, composed of E. V. G. Paul, of Beed, and W. K. Kirkwood, of Amity, Yamhill county; C. G. Good, of Dalhart, H. B. Fletcher, of Independence, Fred N. Stump, of Saver, Polk county; L. H. McMahan, Salem; M. L. Jones, of Brooks, Marion county; J. L. Clark, Springfield, Lane county; and B. Cartwright, of Harrisburg, Linn county, was authorized to proceed with the work of organization and signing up stock subscribers.

Another bloody battle was reported still raging along the line between Czenstochowa and Cracow.

Continued Russian successes, it was asserted, were marking this engagement.

In East Prussia. Petrograd, Nov. 23.—Fresh Russian successes in East Prussia were claimed here today.

Stole the Money to Prepare for Ministry. Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 23.—Charged with participation in the theft of gold bullion worth $20,000, Clarence Loyt, 22, a Christian Endeavor and Sunday school worker, is in jail here today.

CHALLENGES WASHINGTON

Corvallis, Ir., Nov. 23.—Dr. E. J. Stewart, athletic director and coach of the undefeated O. A. C. football team today issued a challenge to the University of Washington for a game December 5 to decide the disputed northwestern championship.

ROY HARDCASTLE KILLED BY ACCIDENT

While out hunting with some boys of about his age Sunday afternoon, Roy Hardcastle, aged 15 years, was accidentally shot with a shotgun which he was carrying and was instantly killed.

STORM CAUSES MANY DEATHS

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 23.—Advices received here today from Lake Superior points caused the belief that more than 50 persons perished in the gale which swept the lake nearly all of last week.

BLAME GOVERNMENT FOR CENSORSHIP

Much Complaint in England Over Censorship, Navy Management and Tax

London, Nov. 11.—(By mail to New York)—A great deal has been said and written concerning the patience with which the British public submitted to all restrictions placed upon them as a result of the war, of the uncomplaining spirit with which they bore their burdens and of the unanimity with which they supported all branches of their government.

Furthermore, the original delegation of nine representative hop growers of Oregon, composed of E. V. G. Paul, of Beed, and W. K. Kirkwood, of Amity, Yamhill county; C. G. Good, of Dalhart, H. B. Fletcher, of Independence, Fred N. Stump, of Saver, Polk county; L. H. McMahan, Salem; M. L. Jones, of Brooks, Marion county; J. L. Clark, Springfield, Lane county; and B. Cartwright, of Harrisburg, Linn county, was authorized to proceed with the work of organization and signing up stock subscribers.

Another bloody battle was reported still raging along the line between Czenstochowa and Cracow.

Continued Russian successes, it was asserted, were marking this engagement.

In East Prussia. Petrograd, Nov. 23.—Fresh Russian successes in East Prussia were claimed here today.

Stole the Money to Prepare for Ministry. Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 23.—Charged with participation in the theft of gold bullion worth $20,000, Clarence Loyt, 22, a Christian Endeavor and Sunday school worker, is in jail here today.

CHALLENGES WASHINGTON

Corvallis, Ir., Nov. 23.—Dr. E. J. Stewart, athletic director and coach of the undefeated O. A. C. football team today issued a challenge to the University of Washington for a game December 5 to decide the disputed northwestern championship.

ROY HARDCASTLE KILLED BY ACCIDENT

While out hunting with some boys of about his age Sunday afternoon, Roy Hardcastle, aged 15 years, was accidentally shot with a shotgun which he was carrying and was instantly killed.

THINK THE KAISER PERFECTING PLANS TO INVADEN ENGLAND

Moving of Entire Belgian Population from Coast Awakens Suspicion

GERMAN WARSHIPS GET READY FOR SEA

These and Other Things Mean Either Invasion or a Big Naval Battle

London, Nov. 23.—Preparations for a German invasion of England were believed here today to be in progress on the other side of the North sea.

Furthermore, the original delegation of nine representative hop growers of Oregon, composed of E. V. G. Paul, of Beed, and W. K. Kirkwood, of Amity, Yamhill county; C. G. Good, of Dalhart, H. B. Fletcher, of Independence, Fred N. Stump, of Saver, Polk county; L. H. McMahan, Salem; M. L. Jones, of Brooks, Marion county; J. L. Clark, Springfield, Lane county; and B. Cartwright, of Harrisburg, Linn county, was authorized to proceed with the work of organization and signing up stock subscribers.

Another bloody battle was reported still raging along the line between Czenstochowa and Cracow.

Continued Russian successes, it was asserted, were marking this engagement.

In East Prussia. Petrograd, Nov. 23.—Fresh Russian successes in East Prussia were claimed here today.

Stole the Money to Prepare for Ministry. Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 23.—Charged with participation in the theft of gold bullion worth $20,000, Clarence Loyt, 22, a Christian Endeavor and Sunday school worker, is in jail here today.

CHALLENGES WASHINGTON

Corvallis, Ir., Nov. 23.—Dr. E. J. Stewart, athletic director and coach of the undefeated O. A. C. football team today issued a challenge to the University of Washington for a game December 5 to decide the disputed northwestern championship.

ROY HARDCASTLE KILLED BY ACCIDENT

While out hunting with some boys of about his age Sunday afternoon, Roy Hardcastle, aged 15 years, was accidentally shot with a shotgun which he was carrying and was instantly killed.

CHILI GETTING WARM

Lima, Peru, Nov. 23.—Chilean newspapers received here today declared the Chilean government was determined to stop alleged German violations of the country's neutrality, even if it cost war.

GUADALAJARA IS ATTACKED BY VILLA

His Army Consists of 15,000 While that Defending City Numbers 20,000

El Paso, Texas, Nov. 23.—Fifteen thousand Mexican troops, commanded by General Angeles, were assaulting Guadaluajara today. General Villa instructed Angeles to capture the city, even if he found it necessary to level it.

Furthermore, the original delegation of nine representative hop growers of Oregon, composed of E. V. G. Paul, of Beed, and W. K. Kirkwood, of Amity, Yamhill county; C. G. Good, of Dalhart, H. B. Fletcher, of Independence, Fred N. Stump, of Saver, Polk county; L. H. McMahan, Salem; M. L. Jones, of Brooks, Marion county; J. L. Clark, Springfield, Lane county; and B. Cartwright, of Harrisburg, Linn county, was authorized to proceed with the work of organization and signing up stock subscribers.

Another bloody battle was reported still raging along the line between Czenstochowa and Cracow.

Continued Russian successes, it was asserted, were marking this engagement.

In East Prussia. Petrograd, Nov. 23.—Fresh Russian successes in East Prussia were claimed here today.

Stole the Money to Prepare for Ministry. Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 23.—Charged with participation in the theft of gold bullion worth $20,000, Clarence Loyt, 22, a Christian Endeavor and Sunday school worker, is in jail here today.

CHALLENGES WASHINGTON

Corvallis, Ir., Nov. 23.—Dr. E. J. Stewart, athletic director and coach of the undefeated O. A. C. football team today issued a challenge to the University of Washington for a game December 5 to decide the disputed northwestern championship.

ROY HARDCASTLE KILLED BY ACCIDENT

While out hunting with some boys of about his age Sunday afternoon, Roy Hardcastle, aged 15 years, was accidentally shot with a shotgun which he was carrying and was instantly killed.

GERMAN ADVANCE REACHES CRITICAL STAGE OF JOURNEY

Danger of Being Flanked Is Imminent but Position Must Be Held

IF ARMY IS FLANKED DISASTER IS CERTAIN

Safety of Army Depends Largely On Incompetence of Russian Generals

(By J. W. T. Mason, former London correspondent for the United Press) New York, Nov. 23.—General Von Hindenburg and his German followers have now reached the most critical part of their journey from the Kaiser's frontier to Warsaw.

Furthermore, the original delegation of nine representative hop growers of Oregon, composed of E. V. G. Paul, of Beed, and W. K. Kirkwood, of Amity, Yamhill county; C. G. Good, of Dalhart, H. B. Fletcher, of Independence, Fred N. Stump, of Saver, Polk county; L. H. McMahan, Salem; M. L. Jones, of Brooks, Marion county; J. L. Clark, Springfield, Lane county; and B. Cartwright, of Harrisburg, Linn county, was authorized to proceed with the work of organization and signing up stock subscribers.

Another bloody battle was reported still raging along the line between Czenstochowa and Cracow.

Continued Russian successes, it was asserted, were marking this engagement.

In East Prussia. Petrograd, Nov. 23.—Fresh Russian successes in East Prussia were claimed here today.

Stole the Money to Prepare for Ministry. Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 23.—Charged with participation in the theft of gold bullion worth $20,000, Clarence Loyt, 22, a Christian Endeavor and Sunday school worker, is in jail here today.

CHALLENGES WASHINGTON

Corvallis, Ir., Nov. 23.—Dr. E. J. Stewart, athletic director and coach of the undefeated O. A. C. football team today issued a challenge to the University of Washington for a game December 5 to decide the disputed northwestern championship.

ROY HARDCASTLE KILLED BY ACCIDENT

While out hunting with some boys of about his age Sunday afternoon, Roy Hardcastle, aged 15 years, was accidentally shot with a shotgun which he was carrying and was instantly killed.

The Weather Oregon tonight and Tuesday unsettled; probably rain northwest portion; southerly winds.