Hat Creek Runs Muddy But Mt. Lassen Is Quiet

Redding, Cal., May 25.—With Hat Creek still running muddy and thick with the outpourings of Mount Lassen, the volcano remained somnolent today. The creek was beginning to clear, but the water is still unfit for livestock to drink.

Inhabitants of the valley remain in fear that Lassen may break forth again, but officials of the government forestry service and scientists are now turning their attention to a study of the mud which flooded the valley and making general observations. Thomas H. Means, a government soil expert, went over the entire valley yesterday and today expressed the opinion that the mud deposit would greatly improve the soil for next year. This is in contradiction of other opinions. In the lower valley the mud is shallow and some of the crops there may recover, Means reported.

JANITOR QUESTION IS MOST IMPORTANT TO SCHOOL BOARD

Directors Discuss Need of a Competent Man to Take Charge of Janitor Work

The McKinley school building contract having been disposed of and work in progress upon the second chimney for the high school, which latter, according to the report of the building committee, is being constructed "according to specifications," one of the most important and delicate problems with which the Salem school board is now confronted is the janitorship question as applied to the public school system of the city.

While no definite plan of action has as yet been outlined it is quite probable that there will be a thorough reorganization of the janitor system of the schools. It is not improbable that a head or chief janitor, a man who is qualified to take complete charge of all of the schools of the city and look after every detail of the work, will be decided upon by the board in the near future.

The question came up at the last regular meeting, Monday night, and was discussed from every angle and it seemed to be the consensus of opinion of the board that it would be an act of economy and relieve the city superintendent, the principals and the members of the board from a great deal of worry and unnecessary attention to the little details of the work to employ a competent man to oversee the work of all of the schools. It was reported that, while some of the present janitors are doing good and conscientious work, there are others who merely perform their duties in a careless and perfunctory manner and it will be the policy of the board to employ only such in the position of janitor who will devote their time and energy, and take a personal pride, in keeping up the repairs at the schools and the buildings and their surroundings in a cleanly and slightly manner.

Although it was announced that there was a multiplicity of applicants for all positions and that one or more persons were in view who are competent to act as head janitor, no names were mentioned in particular except in the nature of a general review of the respective qualifications of the present staff of janitors and it was the sense of the board that the duty and responsibility of selecting and employing the janitor for the new McKinley school, and such others as are deemed necessary, should devolve upon City Superintendent Elliott.

Superintendent Elliott announced at Monday night's meeting that the city armory had been engaged for the purpose of holding the high school commencement exercises, on the evening of June 11, and President Biley, of McMinnville college has accepted the invitation to deliver the address to the class of 102 pupils who will graduate from the senior high this year.

Bills against the district to the aggregate amount of $270.87 were audited and ordered paid by Secretary Burghardt.

THREE NEW MEMBERS ADDED TO FACULTY OF WILLAMETTE U.

Three of the new professors for Willamette university next year have been decided upon, they are Prof. John O. Hall, Ph. D., of Columbia university; Prof. Robert E. Stauffer, A. M., of West Virginia Wesleyan; Helen Miller Seann, A. B. and B. O., of Boston College of Expression. These three have been definitely decided upon and will come here sometime this summer to be here for the opening of the school next September. All come with the highest recommendations and scholastic standing.

Professor Hall received his doctor's degree at the University of Columbia where he finished four years of graduate work. While at Columbia Prof. Hall did personal work under the noted professors, Seligman, Gidding, Devine and Brander Matthews.

Professor Hall will have charge of the department of sociology and social science in general. His courses for next year will include one of compiling statistics.

Prof. Robert Stauffer, who will have charge of the English literature department, is at present on the faculty of President Doney at West Virginia Wesleyan. President Doney states that he is a strong man in English literature and that he will fill well the position. He has taken degrees in Mount Union college, Harvard university, and University of Chicago. Just what courses he will offer is not known.

Helen Miller Seann, who is to take charge of the department of public speaking and debate is from Portland. She has taken degrees in the University of Michigan, National Conservatory of Dramatic Art and Oratory, Boston College of Expression. She has been the head of a public speaking department in an eastern college for several years and has had unusually good fortune with the students which she coached in inter-collegiate debate and oratory.

Among her courses for next year will be courses in Elementary work on voice, body and mind, and their psychological relations, oratory and great orators, debate and extemporaneous speaking.

She will have direct charge of the coaching of the debate teams and the orators who will represent Willamette in the inter-collegiate contests.

The remainder of the faculty for the coming year is not as yet decided upon.

Too Many War Notes Says Uncle Joe Cannon

San Francisco, March 25.—"I have been sending too many notes to Germany. So many that I've lost track of them," said Uncle Joe Cannon, former speaker of the national house of representatives today as he came down the gangplank of the Matson liner Wilhelmina, just in from the Hawaiian islands.

"In fact," he continued, "I've even quit reading the war news. The dreary, easy life of Hawaii interested me a great deal more than Europe's troubles. I had such a good time that I didn't even read the president's Lusitania note to Germany. I haven't got anything more to say and therefore I won't say it." And Uncle Joe gave his stogie a belittling tilt and walked away.

Fate of Five Murderers Hangs in the Balance

Phoenix, Ariz., May 25.—As a result of tremendous pressure brought to bear on the state board of pardons, it will hold a special meeting tomorrow to consider the cases of five murderers scheduled to be hanged on Black Friday, May 28.

The fate of the five will be finally decided at this momentous session on the eve of the death day. The pardon board is composed of three members, the state attorney general, the superintendent of public instruction and a private citizen. It has the power of life and death over the condemned five at this time.

Citizen Member Trott and Superintendent of Public Instruction Case are said to be wavering and inclined to grant another reprieve. The attorney general, however, stands firm for the hangings.

The house executive committee membership of the board that the men be reprieved, which was ignored by the pardons board at its last regular meeting, was offset today by a memorial from the state senate commending the board for its refusal to yield to the pleadings of the mercifully inclined. The public is sharply divided on the proposition. Meanwhile the gallows has been prepared and the five murderers placed in the condemned cells. Still they have hope and are seeing frequent reports in their behalf. Nine other men condemned to hang later are in the Florence prison.

Three Persons Roasted In Gas-Filled House

Milwaukee, Wis., May 25.—The police and the coroner today are trying to determine the reason why the death of three persons found roasted here in a gas-filled house was the result of a triple suicide pact or double murder and suicide.

The dead are John A. Schneider, 25, a shoemaker; Mrs. Tillie Schneider, 25, his wife; and Mrs. Barbara Plank, 25, mother of Mrs. Schneider.

Every gas jet was on, but only the burners of the range were lighted, causing a temperature of 400 degrees. The heat was so intense that the bodies of the dead had become blackened, blood oozing from the pores. Schneider left a note asking that one hundred dollar coffins be provided for each.

Dr. Rich declared that little Anita would be able to use her legs for the first time within about two weeks.

Dr. Rich, as well as the surgeons who will operate in succeeding cases, donated his services.
