OFFICIALS CONSIDER ACUTE CRISIS PASSED

Washington Diplomats Relax In Belief That International Situation Will Soon Be Cleared Up—Peace Rumor Persists But Comment Withheld Until Return of Colonel House From European Capitals With Report

By John Edwin Nevitt.
Washington, June 12.—President Wilson today emphasized his belief that the immediate international crisis is certain to pass soon by announcing that he hopes to go to Cornish, N. H., about July 4 for a vacation.

Word from Ambassador Gerard is expected tonight or Sunday stating the manner in which the president's rejoinder has been received in Berlin. Officially have received intimations that German sentiment is now more friendly and the changed tone in the expressions of the German press is interpreted as indicating the government is anxious for pacific measures.

Acting Secretary of State Lansing was a visitor at the executive offices during the morning. He displayed nothing but the greatest optimism, but declined to answer questions as to the hopefulness of the situation. Lansing did not see the president, who played golf during the morning. This afternoon the chief executive rested in his room and went for an automobile ride.

While discussion of the possibility of a movement for peace growing out of the latest communication to Germany continued today, more speculation as to whether any material changes were made in the president's rejoinder were made in the note after Bryan's resignation was accepted, but again called attention to the fact that Bryan was in office up to the time the note was transmitted to Berlin.

Lansing was asked if the sentence suggesting that if Germany had in fact done what New York port officials did not properly perform their duties in enforcing the neutrality laws before the Lusitania sailed, that it be submitted for consideration, was written into the note after Bryan's resignation was accepted. He replied that this was a matter for President Wilson to answer.

The acting premier declared there was no immediate change indicated in the international relations of the country. President Wilson has placed the United States squarely before the warring nations of Europe as a mediator. And that Germany's acceptance of the president's demand for guarantees of safety of American citizens and property was the belief generally expressed in official circles today.

With the president's rejoinder now in the hands of the kaiser and the Berlin foreign office it was upon the question of possibilities of peace that discussion of the latest American note hinged today. In all quarters a spirit of optimism was evidence as to the issues between this government and Germany and the broader possibilities were generally discussed.

President Wilson has suggested that the United States is willing to transmit exchanges between Germany and Great Britain leading to remedy the conditions of the war upon the seas. He has therefore lined the United States squarely as a mediator. A copy of the latest note to Germany was forwarded to the American ambassadors in London, Petrograd, Paris and Rome. This government having taken its position as an intermediary, the ambassadors may sound out the governments to which they are accredited in an effort to learn whether there is any common ground for peace.

In this connection Colonel House has returned from the warring countries at a timely hour. He has visited every belligerent and can tell President Wilson whether behind the mask of readiness to continue the war, there is really hope for an immediate peace among the various powers.

Plans for Cherry Fair rapidly taking shape. General direction of the affair is with the tourist, publicity and conventions department of the commercial club. F. G. Decker is director of this department and has his committee arranged. He has chosen to assist him on the general committee, Paul Wallace, W. M. Hamilton, Rev. Mr. Roll, S. Gill, and P. H. D'Arcy. In addition particular features of the celebration will be in charge of sub-committees chosen from the other departments having special jurisdiction.

As at present outlined the scheme contemplates giving Friday to the near-by towns, the outside marketing orders, fraternal and lodge organizations and general civic and fraternal features. In addition there will be a complete program of races and sports, singing and general amusement features.

Saturday will be devoted to the farmers and will include a monster farmers' picnic in the park, a speech by Governor Willard and music by different singing societies. Also there will be other attractions for school's farmers' picnic with a particular effort to make their visit to the city pleasant and profitable.

Sunday will hold a monster picnic and peace meeting in Marion Square. A powerful outside speaker will be secured for this occasion and the best musical numbers, both vocal and instrumental, will be given.

The committees interested are working steadily and hope to have the definite program announced early next week.

LARGEST CLASS IN HISTORY OF HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATED

Ninety Seven Young Men and Women Receive Diplomas and Advice

The ninth annual commencement exercises of the Salem high school was held last evening in the gymnasium before an audience that filled the large auditorium to its utmost capacity, and even then hundreds were turned away.

President Leonard W. Riley, who for the past ten years has been president of McMinnville college, delivered the address of the evening, on "The Ideal Education." No interest in the world is more vital than education," said Dr. Riley. "Education is the drawing out of one's latent ability, and by education, every life is increased in value."

Dr. Riley claimed that according to statistics, a common school training will add to one's ability 50 per cent, while a high school training will add 100 per cent and going farther, a college training will increase the natural talents 200 per cent.

The possibilities of success, he declared, were multiplied 600 times by a proper college training and even in the race for wealth, the college man had 300 more chances to win than the untrained man. "The world admires the man who knows how to get and do things," said Dr. Riley, "and right now there is more room at the top than ever."

All through his address the speaker put special stress on the Christian character, saying that it was the keystone that joined the physical and mental being.

Musical numbers by the girls chorus of the high school and by the boys' glee chorus showed the careful training of Miss Magers. The Hunting song by "King Arthur," by Harry Mills and Ivan Schenker was warmly applauded.

Superintendent Elliott expressed his appreciation of the work of the school board for the past year and thanked the people for their efforts in sustaining the board. He said he hoped to see the time when there would be an auditorium capable of seating 5,000 so that at these commencement exercises, some would be unable to secure admission.

At the beginning of the exercises, hundreds were turned away. Principal J. C. Nelson praised the seniors for what they had accomplished and stated that the class of '15 would compare favorably with any class that had ever been graduated. He felt that everyone was now better fitted for life, having completed a high school education.

President of the school board, B. J. Miles stated that the great success of the schools was because the people had stood behind the school board and that for the past four years, all the board had asked for had been granted.

The entire evening exercises were noted for their simplicity. The girls wore all white, carrying flowers with purple ribbons. The stage was beautifully decorated in the class colors, white and purple, lanked with flowers and ferns. The graduates were: Queenie Alice Alport, Nellie Alma Ashby, Roy Luther Barber, Roy Edith Barker, Albert Edmund Bouffleur, Frank Kimball Brown, Lulu Marie Chittenden, Laura Constance, Arvilla Coan, Katie McKinley Dune, Delmer Albert Davidson, L. AUSTRO-GERMANS LOSE 40,000 MEN IN ONEISTER FIGHT

Petrograd War Office Claims Von Mackensen Is Thrown Upon Defensive

Petrograd, June 12.—The losses of the Austro-German forces in the big battle fought along the Dnieper Thursday were today placed at 40,000 in official estimates received from Lemberg. This includes the killed and wounded and prisoners taken by the victorious Russians.

In thrusting the army of General Von Linsingen back upon Sarvas, the Russians are declared to have all but annihilated several forces which became detached from the main command. The Austro-German army is now being steadily thrown back toward the Dnieper. One thousand prisoners were taken during a battle at Ottyvia, 20 miles southeast of Stanislau, and at every point the enemy is declared to be meeting with severe reverses.

It is officially admitted that the Russian evacuated Stanislau, as claimed by Berlin recently. The movement was made, however, to shorten the Russian line of communications, it was declared today. The Slav army with drawn from Bukowina is said to be responsible for the overwhelming of Von Linsingen's forces.

The belief is now expressed that Lemberg has been saved from immediate assault. Until reinforcements are brought up it is not believed the Austro-Germans will make another thrust at the city.

Not only has the movement upon Lemberg from the direction of Stryj been stopped, but the Austro-German command, commanded by General Von Mackensen, is now declared to be entirely on the defensive. Men and guns have been captured by the Russians and the enemy is reported to be desperately endeavoring to reform his lines while resisting the Slav offensive.

Heavy losses were suffered by the Austro-German army at Mowiska, directly east of Przemysl where the Russians made their stand. Russian reserve forces had prepared strong entrenchments in this region which were held with comparatively small losses to the Slavs. Heavy field pieces and machine guns swept the German ranks as they attempted to storm the Russian positions, and with the offensive of the enemy spent, the Slavs struck, repulsing the Germans in disorder.

Zarovo Recaptured. Berlin, via wireless to London, June 12.—General Von Linsingen's forces have recaptured Zarovo, an official statement from the war office announced today.

The Russians were driven from the bridgehead at Zarovo and across the Dnieper, the statement added. This statement from Berlin is the first confirmation from German sources of Russian claims of having repulsed the Austro-German army along the Dnieper. Announcement of the recapture of Zarovo is the first intimation that the Russian success was of such extent as to force Von Linsingen's forces from the town.

Fog Stops Fighting. Paris, June 12.—A thick fog north of Arras has completely stopped operations on the battle front, this was officially announced today.

Light fighting has been reported during the last 24 hours. For the most part, owing to unfavorable weather conditions, the French have been occupied with the strengthening of their positions, especially about Neuville St. Vaast. Numerous German prisoners are being sent back to the French lines.

A woman is always looking on the bright side of things, especially in war.

Oregon General. By fair tonight and Sunday, was met by Sunday except near the coast, westerly winds.

BANDITS ROB TRAIN AND ESCAPE TO HILLS

Robbers Make Systematic Search of Passengers At Point of Pistol

Los Angeles, Cal., June 12.—A cord of deputy sheriffs today surrounded the San Francisco valley in the region of Chatsworth in the hope of rounding up the two bandits who held up the Southern Pacific "Coaster" there last night and robbed six carloads of passengers, escaping in a hail of bullets fired from the baggage car.

A Pullman porter and several of the victims trailed the thugs for some distance after they had left the train, but lost them in the darkness. The amount of loot they obtained is not known.

The bandits boarded the observation platform as the train pulled out of Chatsworth. One carried a shotgun and the other a revolver. Both were swarmed over the observation car railing the passengers rushed forward. Coolly the robbers proceeded systematically to tour the train. After first rounding up the trainmen they marched from car to car, always proceeding to the front of the car, where he watched the passengers, as his companion searched over the observation car railing the passengers rushed forward.
