SEND IN SOCIAL NEWS.

The Capital Journal is always glad to print social news from outside of Salem, and will appreciate anything of this kind sent in over the telephone or by mail. In sending in news the writer's name should always be signed, not for publication, but as a guarantee that the matter is reliable. We do not print anything sent in unless we know the author of it.

Mrs. John Schneider and her children, Louise and Maynard, left today for Eugene, where they are to join Mr. Schneider to take up their residence at that place.

The season of launch and picnic parties is here, and now that school no longer claims the attention of the young people, there will be affairs of this kind too numerous to mention. Last night a group of young folk, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Harris and Mrs. Lee Unruh, went up the river in launches to a place about two miles from the city, where they circled a camp fire and enjoyed the usual outdoor diversions. Present were: Miss Winnie Baker, Miss Blanche Drake, Miss Emma Minton, Miss Marjorie Minton, Miss Averill Harris, Miss Agnes Gregson, Miss Ethel Frazier, William Chittick, Floyd McIntyre, Ross Harris, Harry Irvine, Earl Unruh and Charles Unruh.

Mrs. A. L. Brown writes enthusiastically to friends here of the Panama-Pacific exposition, which she is attending. She is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Matthews (Miss Blanche Brown), in Berkeley, and will remain during the summer, enabling her to leisurely visit the various departments.

Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Plummer were honored with an informal reception Tuesday evening, given by the members of the congregation of the Cheneketa street Evangelical church, to which Mr. Plummer has recently been assigned. The affair was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. William Wechter, 1433 Center street, a large number calling during the receiving hours to welcome the Plummers to the place which they filled several years ago.

About 35 members and friends of the congregation of the Jason Lee church attended the silver tea given by the members of the Ladies Aid society of the church at the home of Mrs. Bert Waller, near the Fairgrounds, Thursday afternoon. A profusion of rose blooms decorated the rooms, where the following presided: Mrs. Waller, Mrs. D. H. Weyant and Mrs. Warner.

Mrs. G. L. Burbank, of Albany, is the house guest of Mrs. A. M. Clough. She will remain a fortnight and will be in the inspiration for a number of affairs.

Mrs. J. A. Bernard was hostess for the Elite Embroidery club yesterday afternoon, asking Mrs. Mary Rodgers and Miss Rose Bach to assist her.

Mrs. Frank Ward was the inspiration for a delightful surprise, given in a group of her friends, who form the "Idle Hour" club, and their husbands.

The affair took place at the new residence of the Wards, 960 Marion street, Wednesday evening, the occasion being Mrs. Ward's birthday. The guests circled tables for "500," and also enjoyed an impromptu musical program. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. R. Grant, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Simpson, Mrs. and Mrs. Clyde Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. L. Hewitt, Mr. and Mrs. Miller Bevier, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert C. Burton, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Richardson.

Mr. and Mrs. William McGilchrist, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. McGilchrist, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Hendricks were among Salem folk attending the commencement exercises of the University of Oregon. Millar McGilchrist and LeLand Hendricks were among the graduates. All returned last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry K. Merwin and little son, Paul Henry, will pass the week-end in Portland, the guests of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Flanders (Miss Lillian Metchon), who have been the guests this week of Mrs. Flanders' sister, Mrs. L. P. Griffith, returned to their home in Portland yesterday.

Friends of the piano pupils of Professor T. S. Roberts filled the First Methodist church last night to hear them in closing recital.

Miss Lena Dotson presented a number of her piano pupils in private recital at her home, 1009 Union street, Tuesday evening. Much interest was displayed in the work of the musicians and many compliments passed upon the general excellence of the renditions. Those who took part were Mrs. Frank Boehring, Loyal Gray, Grace Jasper, Irma Boughey, Mabel Dotson, Prudence Patterson and Dorothy Patterson.

Mrs. F. A. Weckerly and two children from Delphi, Ind., are visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Mullen, near the Fairgrounds. She expects to remain in Oregon the greater part of the summer. She is a telegraph operator on the Wabash railroad, and was here in Oregon to a visit six years ago.

Cyclone Sweeps Over Kansas and Missouri

Chicago, June 18.—American Telephone and Telegraph company officials today reported that a cyclone swept Missouri between St. Louis and Kansas City last night, prostrating wires and interrupting communication. Reports of heavy losses of life are not confirmed and are generally discredited.

Owing to the damage inflicted by the storm July wheat opened at $1.05, a gain of 1-3-4.

One Dead in Kansas. Kansas City, June 18.—One person is dead here today as the result of cloud-bursts, hail and tornadoes which swept Kansas and a part of Missouri last night. A tornado at Paris, Mo., damaged two hotels, unroofed buildings and swept bridges. The Big Blue river near Kansas City has risen 12 feet during the last eight hours and is still rising.

Probably there is nothing quite so pure as the motive of a man who lends money to another when he is morally certain he will never get it back.

FATHER O'FARRELL DELIVERS ELOQUENT PATRIOTIC SPEECH

Graduating Exercises of the Sacred Heart Academy Most Brilliant

Rev. J. H. O'Farrell, of Woodburn, was treated to round after round of enthusiastic applause by an audience which filled the Grand Opera house to overflowing last night, upon the occasion of the graduating exercises of the Sacred Heart Academy, during the course of one of the most patriotic and eloquent addresses which has ever been delivered from the pulpit or the stage in this city upon a similar occasion. Eight pupils were graduated from the academy this year under the most brilliant and inspiring auspices and the entire program which was rendered in connection with the event was one of the best ever produced by this or any other educational institution in the city or state.

Father O'Farrell's address was directed more particularly to the class of graduates than to the big audience in attendance and he endorsed every act of President Wilson during the present war crisis and charged them individually and collectively to live up to the true standards of Americanism and pledge undying fealty and loyalty to the government administration "regardless of the flag under which we chanced to be born and without regard to what country we call our fatherland." He gave some special advice and counsel to the girl graduates, saying that to the women was especially due an advanced education in order that they not only be trained to look after their inherent duties of the household, but to be prepared to vote and act intelligently when called upon to do so upon serious questions affecting the home and the government.

Aside from the address to the graduates by Father O'Farrell, the principal and most absorbing feature of the evening's program was an allegory entitled "The Test" which was enacted by the pupils of the academy and with splendid effect. Another excellent and highly entertaining feature of the program was a harp trio "The Harp That Once Thro' Tara's Hall," which was executed with very pleasing effect by Misses Louise Berndorfer, Gertrude Campbell and Eleanor Huestein. Rev. Father Moore conferred the honors and diplomas upon the graduates as they were introduced, being assisted by a group of pretty little girls, and each one was decked with a crown of bay leaves as he or she was presented with a diploma.

Among those from out of town who attended the exercises were Rt. Rev. Placidus Fuerst, O. S. B., abbot of Mt. Angel monastery; Rev. Dominic Waden-schewley, pastor of St. Mary's church, Mt. Angel; Rev. Benedict Barr of Mt. Angel college, and Rev. Father Jacobi, S. J., Spokane, Wash.

Following are the names of the graduates:

Latin Course—Cecilia Gertrude Campbell, Eliza Nolan, Caroline Mary O'Connell, Gertrude Patricia Robison.
Modern Language Course—Mary Helena Barr, Vera Mildred Brunk, Independence; Ruth Ann Cooper.
Senior Pinnoforte Course—Louise Elizabeth Berndorfer, Salem.

Albany Realty Broker Hanged Himself In Office

Albany, Ore., June 18.—Looking through the front window of the real estate office of C. W. Tebault yesterday afternoon about 2:15 a young man named Whips, saw Mr. Tebault sitting in a chair just back of the door to the consultation room with a cord around his neck. Exciting suspicion he at once had the chief of police notified. Sheriff Bodine was also called up, and so was the coroner, Wm. Fortmiller, all arriving shortly afterwards. Dr. B. R. Wallace was immediately sent for, and upon arriving examined the body and pronounced the man dead. When the first parties went in the cord was cut at once. One of the first to be there was Alfred Tebault, his son. An examination showed that the neck was not broken, but strangulation might have resulted. In connection with the death it was reported that Mr. Tebault was subject to heart trouble, which might have made death easier.

Mr. Tebault came to Albany from Virginia 10 or 12 years ago, and opened a real estate office, since then being in business steadily. He is said to have met with losses in several ventures, causing financial losses that had disturbed him, and which no doubt played a part in the unfortunate termination of his life. An effort was made to find some note or writing from him, but none had been found at press time.

The family consists of a wife and two sons, Clarence W. Tebault, Jr., now in San Francisco, in charge of the Linn county exhibit at the fair, and Alfred, who has been at home, with his father, and also in charge of a jitney.

American Painter Wins Grand Prize In Art

San Francisco, June 18.—Frank Davenport, American, has won the world's grand prize in art at the Panama-Pacific exposition, where a jury of 45 unanimously agreed to award the honor to him. Many of the best artists of the world have contributed to the display at the fine arts palace. After the announcement to Davenport at an informal banquet, the artist departed with his daughter for Gloucester, Mass.

Albany Real Estate Man Found Hanging In Office

Albany, Ore., June 18.—Indications today were that C. W. Tebault, a prominent real estate man, whose body was found suspended by a neck cord from a nail in the wall of his private office, committed suicide.
No cause for Tebault taking his own life could be ascertained, however.
A widow and two sons survive.

Trade Secrets of the COFFEE BUSINESS

No. 3 of a Series

Our business on Royal Club Coffee has increased by leaps and bounds since we adopted the new selling prices a short time ago.

This new policy is the result of a determination to eliminate the big profits which are generally known to be made on coffee. The biggest factor is selling expense. Because we get our coffee to the consumer with the same organization as handles our other food products, we are saving 10 to 20 per cent on this item alone. Lang Coffees represent the best values in America. Our big coffee plant right now is several days behind with its orders. Try Royal Club at the now low prices—do it today.
