Italy Enthuses at Great Celebration

Rome, July 5.—"America will not sheath the sword she has drawn until there is a final decisive victory over autocracy," declared American Ambassador Thomas Nelson Page, at Rome's monster celebration of the American Fourth of July.

Page was the central figure in the demonstration which was the most impressive and the most enthusiastic Italy has witnessed in years. Thousands jammed capitol square and cheered for America again and again. Some of the nation's highest officials were present. Premier Bosselli presided and his words of appreciation for America's entry with the allies evoked great enthusiasm.

To the Public "I have been using Chamberlain's Tablets for indigestion for the past six months, and it affords me pleasure to say I have never used a remedy that did me so much good."—Mrs. C. E. Riley, Hilton, N. Y. Chamberlain's Tablets are obtainable everywhere.

Will Raid Drug Stores If Law Is In Effect

Seattle, Wash., July 5.—Mayor Gill announced today he would send police squads to raid every drug store in the city if Corporation Counsel Hugh Caldwell rules that the state bone dry law is in effect. This measure is being held up for a count of referendum signatures. It is reported to have failed.

"I'm not going to sit," said the mayor, "and twiddle my thumbs while the drug stores unload the stocks they put in, anticipating the bone dry drought."

Stomach Troubles and Constipation "I will cheerfully say that Chamberlain's Tablets are the most satisfactory remedy for stomach troubles and constipation that I have sold in thirty four years' drug store service," writes S. H. Murphy, druggist, Wellsburg, N. Y. Obtainable everywhere.

CABINET OFFICIALS WIVES SIGN CARDS

Will Stand In With Hoover in Conserving Country's Food Supply

Washington, July 5.—Wives of six of President Wilson's official family have followed the lead of Mrs. Wilson and signed Herbert Hoover's food conservation cards.

Eleanor Lansing, wife of the secretary of state, signed card No. 3. It pledges the secretary's household to one wheelless meal a day and cuts veal and lamb from the family bill of fare. The Lansings will practice strict economy in the use of butter and sugar, but fruit and vegetables will be served in abundance.

Julian Gregory states she has five members in her household, that she employs a cook and that the occupation of her bread winner, T. W. Gregory, is attorney general of the United States.

Mrs. David Houston, wife of the secretary of agriculture, with eight in the house, will welcome the wheelless meal and return to the corral of the south, from whence they came. She will help her neighbors conserve food, too.

Although Mrs. Franklin K. Lane has a son, Franklin, Jr., in the aviation corps, she pledges the Lanes to further service of the country by signing into Hoover's army.

Mrs. Redfield, wife of the secretary of commerce, and Mrs. W. R. Wilson, wife of the secretary of labor, also signed the cards.

Is Not Shifting Men.

London, July 5.—Germany has not yet started to shift men from the western front to the north to meet the Russians, judging from evidence at hand, British official Maurice declared today.

He characterized the German offensive against the Chemin Des Dames as an effort of the German general staff to restore a failing morale among the troops, due to the long defensive situation on which they have been fighting.

According to General Maurice, it is impossible to overestimate the moral effect of the Russian offensive on Russia herself and on the allies and the Central Powers.

Since the start of the war, General Maurice said the British alone had taken 117,776 prisoners and had 51,088 of their own forces captured. In the same period the British captured 739 German and lost 133 to the enemy, later re-capturing 37 of these. The figures, he said, did not include Africa.

Trying to Fool Russians.

Petrograd, July 5.—Germany is using the air now in an endeavor to circulate propaganda against Russia's fighting.

Vladimir Voitsensky, formerly a resident of New York, read to the workmen and soldiers' congress today a radio message signed "Hindenburg" which had been intercepted by Russian wireless stations. It urged the Russians not to fight "because their advance was assisted by the imperial capitalists who were among Germany's enemies."

Voitsensky created a tremendous burst of patriotic enthusiasm by declaring all opponents to Russia's advance were Hindenburg's friends.

Local Boards Busy Perfecting Details for Selective Draft

Washington, July 5.—In every part of the country today local exemption boards were completing their work and posting their registration lists with the serial numbers that will be used later in the actual draft of men for the national army.

Under orders from Provost Marshal General Crowder, each local board must meet, organize and assign serial numbers to the names on the registration lists. As soon as the last precinct is finished the draft will begin in Washington.

Under the law, the names and numbers must be posted and copies furnished the press. When a number is drawn in the lottery later in Washington, it will draft the man holding that number in every precinct in the country.

Three Are Penalized for Fast Traveling

R. E. Taylor, proprietor of the electric works at Stayton, was arrested yesterday while returning from Portland to Stayton by the speed cop who charged him with going at the rate of 35 miles an hour. Taylor protested he was not going that fast but the speedometer of the officer registered 35 miles and the judge assessed him $8, which he paid. He said that while in Portland he received a message that the electric plant had broken down and as he was the only one who knew how to fix it he hurried back.

J. W. State, of Woodburn, was arrested for speeding. He put up $10 bail but had not shown up in Justice Webster's court shortly after noon.

J. W. Daball, of Canas, Washington, was also arrested. He put up $10 for an appearance but so far failed to appear.

Another Victory Over Submarine

An Atlantic Port, July 5.—The story of another supposed victorious battle with a submarine was told by passengers of a British steamer arriving here today.

According to their story at 7 o'clock on the evening of June 26 the U-boat appeared about 500 yards away from the ship, which was immediately swung around to bring the guns into play. Following shots clouds of black smoke arose from the submarine and it was not again seen.

FIERCE ATTACKS ARE REPULSED BY FRENCH

French Repulse Most Savage Thrusts Made During the Year

By Henry Wood.

(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

With the French Armies in the Field, July 5.—The German crown prince's Tuesday night attack on a front of 12 miles between Joy and Craonne was Germany's greatest offensive action on the western front this year. Headquarters reports, assembled today giving data of attacking regiments and losses gave proof to this belief of French commanders today.

Notwithstanding the force of this attack, the French checked it so completely that the French commanding general was able personally to remain in the first line trenches during the battle. The Germans did not capture a single foot of French positions.

Moreover their losses were staggering.

After fighting all night Tuesday, the French troops on Wednesday received their chief commander's order announcing the arrival of American troops in Paris and ordering the French soldiers to join in a general Fourth of July celebration.

The announcement was greeted with tremendous enthusiasm in all the trenches.

Alleging that Gottlieb Hirsch treated her cruelly and inhumanly, that he has a terrible temper which he does not control, and that he threatened to kill her, Regina Rosalia Hirsch has begun a suit for divorce in the circuit court. She says they were married in Tacoma, 1907, and that Richard and Edwin Hirsch, aged 9 and 6 respectively, are the issue of the marriage.

She says in her complaint that after living with him for ten years she has been forced to return to her parents. She asks custody of the children and a decree annulling her owner of a certain piece of land.

APPLICANTS UNDER 31 TO HAVE EQUAL SHOW

Adjutant General Corrects Error About Second Series of Officers

Washington, July 5.—In view of the tendency on the part of well qualified men under 31 and men without military experience to hold their applications for the second series of officers training camps because of apparent misunderstanding of the war department's memorandum of information, dated June 4, 1917, General McVain, the adjutant general, issued the following statement today:

"The statement that mature men will be given preference for the second series of officers training camps seems to have been misunderstood in some quarters. This preference will only apply where qualifications are equal. There is no intention to bar out applications by men under 31. In fact, examining officers have been instructed to regard the ages of 25 to 35 the most suitable.

"There is also some misunderstanding about the necessity of previous military experience. The government is looking primarily for intelligent and forceful men, and military experience, though desirable, is not strictly necessary."

Applications for these camps will close July 15.

District Attorney Arouses Their "Irish"

San Francisco, July 5.—Resolutions adopted by 5,000 Irishmen and women, protesting against what is declared to be United States District Attorney Preston's imputation that Americans of Irish birth are disloyal were telegraphed today President Wilson and the California congressmen and senators. The resolutions demand that the president rebuke Preston "for his expressed statement that he has the right to interfere with free speech and assembly of law-abiding citizens."

Uncle Sam Loaned $160,000,000 Today

Washington, July 5.—Additional loans of $100,000,000 to Great Britain and $60,000,000 to Italy were made by the treasury department today, bringing the total war loans to $1,203,000,000. All's well that ends well, but this is a story of a trip that turned out just the opposite.

On the return trip from Albany last night, four people, riding on two motorcycles met with a serious accident when one of the machines struck a pile of gravel and skidded, throwing Miss Alvina Mohr, a Portland girl, to the ground, breaking her leg just above the knee. The accident occurred about a mile and a half south of Jefferson, and the injured girl was brought to the Willamette Sanatorium here.
