

Outlaws host bingo tourney

The Outlaws will host a fun, family-friendly evening out in Sisters Country this month.

Outlaws Together Bingo is scheduled for Monday, January 26; doors open at 5 p.m. for dinner, and bingo starts at 6:30 p.m. at the Sisters High School Commons.

Contestants pay $15 for 11 games, including a game of Bingo Blackout with the grand prize of a 32 GB Apple iPad Mini with retina display.

All proceeds benefit the Sisters High School Outlaws Together athletics department.

A community dinner sponsored by Sisters Park & Recreation District will be held prior to bingo. Come and enjoy a great meal for only $2. As always, the night will include an incredible silent auction.

For more information on Outlaws Together events, contact Tim Roth at 541-549-4050 or tim.roth@sisters.k12.or.us.

Singer makes a stop in Sisters

The Belfry is proud to present multi-instrumentalist and singer-songwriter Casey Abrams Friday, January 23, at 8 p.m.

Casey Abrams' story is that of a born natural, but it's also the story of a person who studied diligently and worked extremely hard, striving toward his dream of a life in music.

He was born in Austin, Texas, to professionally accomplished, extraordinarily creative parents. Casey's mother, Pamela Pierce, a screenwriter and teacher, also plays piano and sings. His father, Ira Abrams, currently teaches at Idyllwild Arts Academy, the distinguished private school in the mountains above Palm Springs, California, that proved instrumental in shaping Casey's musical life. The walls of Casey's childhood home resonated with "the music of the 1950s and '60s," Casey Abrams, singer-songwriter, multi-instrumentalist and American Idol finalist will make a stop at The Belfry.

he states. Even then, he was "hearing those blues riffs and little things that make a song what it is."

The 24-year-old singer, songwriter, multi-instrumentalist and American Idol finalist proves he is here to stay with his self titled debut album on Concord Records.

Doors open at 7 p.m. Tickets are $13 student, $18 adults online; $15 students, $23 adults day of show. For more information visit www.belfryevents.com and www.bendticket.com.
