

Girls lacrosse ends week with double-header

By Rongi Yost
Correspondent

The Lady Outlaws lacrosse players had three big games this past week. The squad started with a 15-10 loss against Corvallis on Tuesday, April 14. Four days later, Sisters played at home in a double-header. The Outlaws fell 17-6 in their first game against West Salem and then lost 17-9 against Crescent Valley.

Sisters played a great game against Corvallis on Tuesday. The Spartans scored two quick goals at the onset and took a 2-0 lead.

With just over two and a half minutes off the clock, Langley Vogt answered back. Vogt got a fast break right off the draw, beat all defenders, and hit a shot into the upper-right corner of the net to tighten the game to 2-1.

Two minutes later, Marissa Young put a shot into the bottom-right of the goal with an assist from Jenny O'Connor. Marissa made a cut, and beat her defender to catch the pass and score.

Sisters scored three more goals in the first half; two from Vogt, and one from Katelyn Josten. One of Vogt's goals resulted from a great assist from Emily Ford. Ford was behind the goal on the left side, cut in, threaded the needle, and passed to Langley, who was next to her and open for the shot. Josten scored on a fast break up the left side.

The Outlaws finished the first half with five goals, but the Spartans were relentless, kept attacking the goal, and at the half held a 10-5 advantage.

Vogt scored Sisters' first two goals of the second half, and O'Connor scored with a little over nine minutes left on the clock.

The Outlaws scored their final two goals in the last three minutes of the game.

Corvallis scored five additional goals in the second half to record the win.

The Outlaws lost both their games on Saturday against stiff competition.

West Salem racked up 10 goals in the first half of the contest and Sisters was only able to put in two, both from Marissa Young. The Titans added seven goals in the second half, and Sisters had four.

Jenny O'Connor scored three of the Outlaws second-half goals, and Langley Vogt added one. O'Connor's final goal came close to the end of the game and was a beautiful shot in the upper-left pocket of the goal.

PHOTO BY JERRY BALDOCK

Marrison Young moves up the field against Crescent Valley.

Sisters' game against the Raiders of Crescent Valley was just as tough. At the half the Outlaws were only down 8-6, but the Raiders stretched their lead in the second half to win by eight.

Bree Papworth played at goalie against West Salem, and Addy Baney played in goal against Crescent Valley. They both had nine total saves against 26 shots on goal for a 35-percent save-rate on each game.

The Lady Outlaws will play at home against Corvallis on Saturday, April 25.

City to mark Arbor Day April 24

Trees are an essential part of the unique character and identity of Sisters, and this year Sisters will be showing appreciation for trees by celebrating Arbor Day, an event that is recognized around the world.

The City of Sisters will be celebrating on Friday, April 24, with a reading of the Arbor Day proclamation by a City Council member, followed by a ceremonial tree-planting.

The Arbor Day ceremony will be held at 1:30 p.m. at Clemens Park. Ms. Few's third- and fourth-grade class will be planting trees with the assistance from the City of Sisters Public Works staff. The City offers special thanks to Bruce Rognlien, who donated trees for the event.

NuggetNews.com is your online source for Breaking News
Classifieds • Weather
Road Reports

Art/Science/History Center • Conference Center • Field House • Winter Sports Park
Combination Project: Conference Center with Art/Science/History Center and Winter Sports Park

Photos are conceptual, not actual portrayals of the projects.

TOWN HALL MEETING

for ALL Sisters Country residents!

Sunday, April 26 from 4 to 6 p.m.

At FivePine Conference Center

Speak Up! Fill out a survey. Results go to City Council.

FREE beverages (wine and beer) donated by FivePine Lodge & Conference Center, and cash bar

FREE refreshments courtesy of great chefs from FivePine, Brand 33 Restaurant, The Depot Cafe and Sisters High School Culinary Class

View all the presentations, turn in your opinion survey and enter drawing for 3 donated prizes:

Flat-screen TV • Round of Golf at Aspen Lakes (2)

(Ticket holders must be present to win.)

