

Christian Hunt

Sisters High School April 2015 Student of the Month

Christian Hunt is determined to take advantage of every opportunity that passes his way in Sisters.

"I do my best to keep a busy schedule and do as much as I can with my time here in Sisters," he says.

That means athletics: He plays soccer and lacrosse and he is a snowboard rider.

In the classroom, he's strong in math and he is likely going to use that strength in his college career.

"I'm thinking about attending Virginia Tech in engineering, maybe a minor in business," he says. "My plan is to attend the school and take a lot of general classes and see what I like."

His family moved here from Redondo Beach, California, when he was in fourth grade. He says he appreciates the attention teachers are able to provide to students in a smaller school — and he enjoys the tight-knit school community.

"Having small classes helps me know everyone and build lasting friendships," he says.

Christian thinks that's a great way to do high school — then go out into a wider environment in college to broaden experience.

"It has been a privilege to teach Christian Hunt these past few years at Sisters High School. I have enjoyed every minute that I have had him in class. Christian is not only a hard-working, talented student, but he is a wonderful model of what it means to be a true Sisters Outlaw. Christian goes out of his way to lend a hand, and can be counted on to do the right thing...always. I have no doubt that he will go far and do great things when he moves on. Congratulations, Christian!"

— Gail Greaney

Christian is an outstanding student, a committed athlete, an Eagle Scout, and one of the most consistently kind and generous persons I've met. It is truly a pleasure to have gotten to know Christian during his years at SHS. He is a wonderful example of everything it means to be an Outlaw. Congratulations, Christian. I hope you enjoy the wonderful road ahead of you!

— Rob Corrigan

It is said that if you keep your face to the sunshine, you cannot see the shadow. When I think of Christian, I think of this. He is positive and persistent, making him not only a pleasure to have in class, but an encouragement to peers. His perspective on life is one that will carry him far and help him positively impact others.

— Samra Spear

Christian is awesome! He is smart, funny, and hard working. He does it all with a great attitude. I have absolutely loved having him as a student.

— Daniel O'Neill

Christian has been a joy to work with over the last four years.

— Tony Cosby

Congratulations Christian! Watching Christian take on the role of student leader in the Key Club organization has been a pleasure. His quiet leadership skills have shone through this past year. It is nice to see him being recognized for his organizational and leadership skills.

— Michele Hammer

Christian Hunt is humble, hard-working, extremely bright, motivated, kind, well-adjusted and well-mannered. He is a person who always has a smile on his face and he gives out a friendly hello to all those around him. Christian radiates a positive energy that makes people want to be around him. Sisters High School is extremely fortunate to have Christian as a student athlete and as a student leader. I will personally miss him greatly next year.

— Tim Roth

I have had the privilege of having Christian in my AP Biology class this year. He was always courteous and polite and worked extremely hard to learn the concepts in this course. Academically, he was near the top of the class, but just as importantly he was a great person who treated everyone with respect and compassion. He is one of those rare individuals who really brings out the best qualities of those around him. Christian is so deserving of this award. I wish him the very best. Congratulations!
