Rifle raffle raises $8,000 for firefighters

Cloverdale volunteer firefighters raised over $8,000 during this year's Rodeo fundraiser, raffling off a Howa Legacy .30-06 rifle. This year's winner was John Ouelette of Sisters.

Ouelette met with firefighters on Wednesday afternoon, June 17, at Cascade Liquidators, a federally licensed firearms dealer, to complete the legal transfer. Ouelette says that the rifle will eventually be given to his grandson as he grows up and learns to hunt and shoot.

If this year's rifle looked familiar, that is because it was donated back to the volunteers by last year's winner, Ginger Evans of Sisters. Originally donated to the volunteers in 2014 by Sam and Joe Sellers of Cloverdale Fence Company, the rifle was won by Ms. Evans during last year's raffle. Evans, a former volunteer firefighter in Washington, recognized the funding needs of the volunteers and graciously donated the rifle back for another fundraiser.

This year's funds will be used by the volunteers to purchase high-intensity LED lights for mounting on their structural fire helmets, providing much-needed light in dark, smoke-filled buildings.

Band kicks off summer at Angeline's

The summer season is here, and that means dancing in the backyard at Angeline's Bakery. Most Friday nights you will find the locals kicking up their heels with friends and family in the cozy backyard setting.

This Friday The Randy McAllister Band kicks off the summer music series.

Randy McAllister is one of the premier singers, songwriters, multi-instrumentalists to emerge from Texas. Heartbreak, humor, high hair and tall Texas tales all play a part in the songwriting of Randy McAllister. His music has been hailed as some of the most original and innovative being made today. While comparisons are not easy, it has been said that his music is a cross between Doug Sahm, John Hiatt, and Delbert McClinton, with a blues-man's background and sensibilities thrown into the mix.

Music starts at 7 p.m. Friday, June 26. There is food, beer and wine available. Supervised kids are always welcome. Cover charge is $5-$10 sliding scale and 100 percent of the proceeds go to the musicians.
