

Author to read from novel at book store

Oregon author Brian Doyle will read from and sign his new novel, "Martin Marten," at Paulina Springs Books in Sisters on Saturday, August 8 at 6:30 p.m.

Doyle, author of many previous books including the much-acclaimed "Mink River," is a marvelous storyteller whose stageworthy public speaking skills will have you laughing, applauding, and maybe crying.

His new book, set on Oregon's Mt. Hood, is two stories in one. The first is that of a 14-year-old boy named Dave, who is growing up in the hamlet of Zig Zag; the second is of a marten named Martin, who, like Dave, is coming of age. Their separate lives will ultimately mix and mingle, for both are animals existing in the same habitat.

Refreshments will be

Tumbleweed Peepshow at Angeline's

Tumbleweed Peepshow will take the stage at Angeline's Bakery this Friday, July 31, offering their only public show of this summer. The band features long-time Sisters residents Brent Alan, Raman Ellis, and Benji Nagel, as well as a recent transplant, Patrick Hardy.

The quartet's original songs reflect the wide-open space and dramatic effect of their rural and mountainous home here in Sisters. Also offering up classics by the likes of Tom Waits, Hank Williams, and Jackson Browne, they pull at the heartstrings with their raw, soulful, roots-infused sound
