Sisters Library issues call for artists

By Sue Stafford
Correspondent

The call is out to all artists in Sisters Country to mark their calendars for Monday, January 11, the submission date for original artwork to be displayed in the Friends of the Sisters Library (FOSL) 11th Annual Art Exhibit, which runs from January 13 through February 25.

Artwork for the exhibit may be submitted at the library between 10 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. Invitations with all the details have been mailed out to artists and can also be picked up at the information desk at the Sisters Library. Artists may submit two pieces of wall-hung art and five pieces of other art forms that have not been exhibited in the Annual Art Exhibit in the past three years. More than that cannot be accepted due to limited space.

Secured wire hangers are required for all artwork that will be hung; no sawtooth hangers. Wall-hung art cannot exceed 30 inches by 40 inches unless space permits. Quilts and other fiber art must have a sleeve secured on the back for hanging. Larger quilts to be hung on the rafters cannot exceed 84 inches wide by 75 inches long.

Pottery, sculpture and jewelry will be displayed in the locked cases in the entryway.

If the artwork is too large for the case, it will be displayed on a shelf or table in the library. All artwork must be identified with labels on either the back or the bottom of the piece.

Artists are also asked to bring a one-page biography that includes artist's name, description of the submitted work, and contact information, which will go in a notebook which accompanies the show. All art pieces submitted must be approved by the FOSL Art Committee and remain for the entire show. Artists will be asked to sign the library's art exhibit agreement and to state the value of the work. The Deschutes Public Library System will insure the artwork during the period it is in the library building.

The Friends of the Sisters Library will receive a 10 percent commission from the artist for any artwork sold during the art exhibit, which is a fundraiser for FOSL.

There will be an opening reception at the library on Friday, January 22, from 6 to 7:30 p.m., with hors d'oeuvres and beverages served. The public will be able to meet the artists and vote for the three People's Choice Awards, which will be presented that evening. Voting for the awards will take place January 13-22.

Reception set for soccer champions

The Sisters Outlaws will host a reception to celebrate the Sisters High School Boys Soccer 2015 Class 4A State Championship.

The boys went undefeated this season and finished the season with a 2-1 victory over Stayton High School. The Outlaws are coached by Rob Jensen and Brook Jackson.

The reception will be held at the Sisters School District Administration building Wednesday, December 9, beginning at 5 p.m. with the school board meeting to immediately follow.

Refreshments will be provided and all community members are welcome to attend.

Sisters salutes...

• Hats off to the folks who spent their Thanksgiving making one for folks on their own in Sisters Country. That exemplifies the spirit of giving that this place is known for.

• Sisters Folk Festival gives thanks to 'Sup Dog! owners Darrick and Megan Phallon who graciously donated proceeds from dinner sales at the October 25 Christopher Paul Stelling concert to the Sisters Americana Project Program. Thank you, 'Sup Dog!, for the tasty dinner and for supporting youth art and music opportunities in Sisters, Oregon!

La Pine's medical pot tax expected to face lawsuit

LA PINE (AP) — The City of La Pine's tax on medical marijuana might be illegal.

Attorneys representing the Oregon Legislature said in a Nov. 13 letter that a law adopted by the Legislature earlier this year prohibits local government from taxing medical pot.

La Pine enacted the tax earlier this year on the two dispensaries in town. Randy Huff co-owns one of them, and says he's been paying the City about $500 dollars a month.

Huff says he plans to sue because City officials won't provide him with a clear reason for why they are imposing a tax on medicine.

La Pine City Manager Rick Allen says the council plans to review the opinion from the Office of Legislative Counsel at its meeting next month.
