A shopping trip for kids at Sisters Habitat

Children had a great time shopping for their families on Monday. They left with wrapped gifts ready for giving.

Twenty-five children from Sisters received a visit from Santa, Mrs. Claus and the Sugar Plum Fairy when they went Christmas shopping for their parents and siblings at Sisters Habitat for Humanity Thrift Store after school on Monday, December 7.

For the past 15 years, Sisters Habitat has hosted a shopping event for many of the children of Habitat families and other children in the area referred by staff from Family

Access Network and Sisters Elementary School.

A Habitat volunteer is paired up with a child and helps the child shop for his or her family members. Donations made to Sisters Habitat Thrift Store make it possible for the kids to shop.

The kids wrapped their selected presents and afterward enjoyed cookies and a story from Santa and Mrs. Claus.
