Valentine's Day is the most romantic of holidays. It's a day for declaring your love or reaffirming it with your lifelong sweetheart.

From traditional gifts of candy and flowers to one-of-a-kind items of jewelry and apparel, Sisters' merchants offer wonderful ways to tell someone special just what he or she means to you. And romantic getaways and delightful dining are right here, so you can whisk your love away without every leaving Sisters Country. Indulge yourself a little and — more importantly — indulge the one you love. Saying "you're special and I want to spend time with you" is a worthy gesture any day.

It is said that St. Valentine himself gave the first "Valentine." Legend has it that he fell in love with a young woman who visited him while he was imprisoned in Rome. Just before he died, he gave her a letter declaring his love. It was signed "From your Valentine."

Your Valentine doesn't have to be quite so dramatic. But with the help of the unique shops, spas, resorts and restaurants in Sisters Country, you can make sure that it is something truly special.

Dixie's

If your notion of Valentine's Day revolves around Western romance, Dixie's is the place for you.

Head for the West and get set for a romantic night on the town with your sweetie by getting outfitted from Dixie's fabulous Western fashion lines. What better time to get a new pair of boots — and break 'em in cutting the rug with your darlin' on Valentine's Day!

Dixie's hosts a spectacular selection of silver and turquoise jewelry that makes for a truly heartfelt Valentine's gift that will be remembered and cherished for a lifetime. And there are perfect gifts here for both men and women.

And when the dining and dancing is done and the fire's burning bright in the wood stove, you and your Valentine can wrap yourselves in a warm Pendleton blanket from Dixie's, and snuggle up like Sweethearts of the Rodeo.
