

Jadon Bachtold

Sisters High School March 2016 Student of the Month

Jadon Bachtold is a dedicated, motivated student.

"I feel like I've got a lot of school spirit, school pride," he says.

He's a varsity soccer and track athlete, the kicker on the football team; community coordinator for ASG; a Key Club member; a Link Crew leader and a Mr. SHS contestant.

He says he's motivated to be active and give back because "I really value what I've been given in this community."

Academically, he's especially strong in the sciences and that is his probable major in college. He will attend Whitman College and play soccer while preparing himself for a career in the field of medicine.

"Jadon represents everything that is best about being an Outlaw. He is bright and hardworking, kind and enthusiastic, and up-beat no matter the circumstances. I have had the pleasure of spending countless hours witnessing Jadon both in the classroom and on the field. Without exception he has made me proud to be part of the Sisters School community. They don't come better than Jadon. This award is well-deserved. Congratulations!"

— Gail Greaney, Teacher

"I have coached high school sports for almost 17 years. Jadon is one of finest student athletes I have worked with in my career. If I could have Jadon on my team I would be overjoyed. He will be an asset to any organization he joins."

— Tim Roth, Athletic Director

"Jadon is such an amazing kid. Along with being extremely talented, he is kind and has a great sense of humor. I have loved being one of his teachers."

— Dan O'Neill, Teacher

"Jadon lends new meaning to the word 'awesome.' Five years of Chinese (with As every year), a trip to China last summer (where he ate some unique stuff), an amazing performance on the soccer field, Jadon is an inspiration in whatever he tackles. I'm honored to have worked with Jadon over the last 4 years. Way to go, Jadon!"

— David Perkins, Teacher

"Jadon is always happy, and easy to work with. I love to have him around."

— Tony Cosby, Teacher

"Jadon Bachtold is a household name in my family, a student I often (with great pride) talk to my own younger sons about. If someone were to ever write a manual for parents on how to best raise their kid, it should be modeled after Jadon Bachtold."

A respectful, responsible, hardworking, charismatic, joyful, purposeful, appreciative young man that has the rare knack of healthfully balancing academics, athletics, friendships, family and hobbies. The maturity and genuineness behind every smile and conversation is what I will miss most next year, but Jadon will forever be a part of the Outlaw family. Best to you and your amazing endeavors, Jadon."

— Heather Johnson, Teacher

"I can't think of Jadon without thinking of his potential as a runner. The kid is a very strong distance runner. Yet, what makes him stand out is how humble he is. Numerous times I've attempted to credit him on his accomplishments and he always finds a way to turn the conversation to give credit to someone else. The other thing I think about when asked about Jadon is his relationship with his little brother. Seeing Jadon and Asher work together on the soccer field and on the stage during Mr. SHS one can easily see the love and respect they have for each other. As a parent we don't really care what our kids do in regards to sports, academics and interests as long as they are honorable and loving human beings. Jadon is certainly a kind, humble, and honorable young man."

— Joe Hosang, Principal

"Jadon is an incredibly versatile student. He is one of those people who excels in the classroom, on the field, and in the community. He is admired by his teachers because of his positive attitude and hard work; he is respected by his coaches because of his tenacious spirit and level head; and he is well-liked by his classmates because of his inclusive nature and kind heart. Jadon, in short, is a great example of what it means to be an Outlaw. He is very deserving of this honor."

— Matt Bradley, Teacher
