CITY: Announcement expected on Thursday at council meeting

make an announcement at Thursday's regular council meeting.

Frye acknowledged that the council left staff and citizens hanging by not making any announcement at the scheduled special meeting. City staff were unaware that the special meeting was not held and that no decision had been made.

Four citizens showed up at City Hall Monday morning expecting to hear some kind of announcement. The lack of any announcement did not sit well with the citizens who showed up.

Bob Wright said, "I think they should have come out and had the special meeting. If they wanted to hold back, they should have done that, not just ignored the public... they should have followed through with this public meeting and if there's no decision, there's no decision."

"That probably would have been a much better way to go," Frye said later.

Frye acknowledged that he had been "short" with a citizen, Steve Harris, when he showed up expecting the special meeting, and Frye says he intends to contact him.

"I owe an apology for being short," he said.

Harris expressed displeasure at the length of the process.

"I think it's ridiculous that it's taken two months," he said. "That's over $20,000 for him (Gorayeb) to be sitting at home."

Gorayeb, whose annual salary is $92,000 has been on paid administrative leave since February 25, after complaints were made by some City employees regarding conduct that was described only as not financial, physical, or sexual in nature.

Asked whether Gorayeb will return to work, Frye said he cannot answer that question at this time. Asked whether Council wants Gorayeb to return, he said, "We want what's best for the City of Sisters and hopefully by Thursday, that will be finalized and we will be able to make it public."

He said, "I don't want to over-promise and under-deliver, which, unfortunately, I think I did this morning. However, regarding a Thursday, April 28, announcement, he said, "I would fully expect that, yes."

He said that the cost to the City of the lengthy process has not yet been totaled.

Frye thanked the citizenry for their patience — though that seems to be wearing thin.

"Nobody wants this to be over quicker and sooner than the parties involved," he said. "This has been a very difficult, excruciating process and we have five individuals (the Council) who are committed to the best interests of Sisters who are working very hard to get an outcome as quickly as possible with the best interests of Sisters at heart."

Advertising in The Nugget Works!

We've tried different advertising avenues and The Nugget gets the best response and feedback. We ask people where they heard about us and more often than not, it's there. You may attract some tourists because of your location or flashy signage, but what we've learned is everyone in town reads The Nugget. It's the best bang for our buck. It brings in locals and first-timers year 'round, even in the slower months.

Karen and The Nugget staff know how to reach your target audience. They find the words, phrases — and even created for us a customized and unique look that is instantly recognizable. They've done a phenomenal job in helping us change our ad every week to highlight what's happening — and bring in the customers. When The Nugget comes out on Wednesday, the phone is ringing and people come in.

After 20 years in the food industry in LA and NY, it's been great to deal with a real person, not a nameless/faceless voice on the phone, but someone who knows their friends and neighbors. We are supporting our small-town newspaper and community with our advertising dollars — because it works.
