

Short-handed boys lacrosse team finishes season

By Rongi Yost
Correspondent

The boys lacrosse team played their final two games of the season last week. Sisters lost 16-4 at Ridgeview on Wednesday, May 11, and two days later fell 21-10 at home against Cleveland.

In Tuesday's action, Samson Magnus scored two very hard-fought unassisted goals for the Outlaws in the first quarter. Ridgeview put three in the goal for a 3-2 lead at the close of the quarter.

The Ravens added three goals in the second quarter for a 6-2 lead at the half.

Sisters got an unassisted goal from Bennett Lewis in the third quarter and an unassisted goal from Ethan Morgan in the fourth. Both goals were shot from outside at sharp angles that were able to beat the Ridgeview goalie.

Ridgeview added six goals in the second half for their 16-point finish.

Coach Eric Wentzel said, "In this game we only had one penalty the entire game, and we were pleased with that. The coaching staff has been focused on our style of play, and when we have lots of penalties it hurts the whole team."

"We only had three subs for the whole game, which impacted our performance on a warm day," added Wentzel. "This has been a struggle in a number of our games this year. You need subs so the players on the field are always fresh."

Matt Harris had a strong defensive game for the Outlaws with 11 groundballs. Harris has been the Outlaws' groundball leader most every game this season. Wentzel told The Nugget that Harris is only a freshman and he's expecting great things from him in the coming years.

Two days later in their game against Cleveland, the Outlaws kept hard at it until the final whistle blew.

Magnus led the team in scoring with six goals, and Wentzel was quick to comment on his play.

"It was hard to ignore the play of Samson Magnus," said Wentzel. "All of his goals were hard-fought with Samson playing from behind the goal, beating his defense and taking many diving shots to get it past the goalie."

the crowd cheering when he caught a long pass from goalie Casey Warburton, and went on to put a great bouncing shot past the goalie. Green's other goal came off a Trey Stadel assist.

Stadel also scored two for Sisters, one unassisted and one off a David Keaton assist.

"Trey had one of his best games of the season with two goals and one assist," said Wentzel. "The performance ends the season on a high note."

David Keaton led the team with seven groundballs, and Gabe Patton won 10 face-offs.

Wentzel said, "The team worked hard all game, and didn't give up, which was demonstrated by the continued scoring throughout the game. The team took a total of 44 shots, so the effort to score was there. We just faced a pretty good goalie."

"We scooped up 33 groundballs, which is a key to controlling the game, unfortunately, we had 21 turnovers which led to a number of Cleveland's goals."

Wentzel made special note of senior captain David Keaton, who did a fabulous job leading the young defense throughout the season.

Although the young Outlaw squad didn't tally many victories this season, they united as a team, strengthened their skills, and show great potential for the coming years.

"Even in our toughest games and moments in the season, the team unity was strong," said Wentzel. "I did not see any fighting or blaming. The coaches can always say this team has great potential since we are so young, but when you hear it from the teams and fans of your competitors it's something to take note of."

"In our final game, we played with one senior, seven sophomores, and seven freshmen. With such a young team we have a chance to coach and play together for a number of years ahead," added Wentzel. "Due to injuries or grades, we were missing one additional senior, two sophomores and one freshman."
