

MAGGIE BIDASOLO

Sisters High School May 2016 Student of the Month

Maggie Bidasolo is perennially full of energy and ready to take on a challenge.

She is involved with the Rotary-affiliated Interact Club; plays on the tennis team; served as business manager for the yearbook crew; and is active in leadership.

"I don't want to lose out on any opportunity in high school," she said. "I like being social and being involved. It gives me a sense of purpose and belonging."

She's spent her entire school career in Sisters and thanks the many teachers and community members who have supported her over the years. She notes that the notion that it takes a village to raise a child "is very, very relevant to how I was raised."

Maggie plans to take a gap year before going to the University of Oregon, where she will study business and sports journalism.

Energetic, positive, passionate and intelligent are just a few words that come to mind when I think of Maggie. She came to me last year asking how she can help with the yearbook. She had such a passion and a "can-do" attitude that I knew she and the rest of the yearbook team would do an outstanding job. Maggie is so much fun to be around because she has such positive energy and she's a leader. Maggie certainly deserves recognition for her contributions to our school.
— Joseph Hosang

Maggie is a spirited, kind, fun, funny, intelligent and most personable young lady! She is a joy to have in class; fully engaged, interested, inquisitive, hard-working and self-aware as a learner. She is a leader amongst her peers while at the same time experiences great rapport with the adults in her life. With her spunky personality, caring demeanor and love of life, she is sure to find happiness and success in her life and to help bring those gifts to the people and places she encounters. Congratulations and good luck, Maggie!

— Sally Taylor

Maggie's enthusiasm and community spirit are her trademarks and she can certainly be counted on to get things done.

— Charlie Kanzig

Maggie is one of the most interested, enthusiastic, and caring students I have ever taught. She truly makes the classes she is in better for everyone.
