

Sisters Fourth Friday Art Stroll on June 24

Summer is here, and again large crowds are expected to experience and enjoy the wide variety of beautiful art that Sisters' many galleries have to offer at the Fourth Friday Art Walk on June 24 from 4 to 7 p.m.

Hood Avenue Art is featuring oil painter Katherine Taylor, who uses mood, color, and paint texture to form two-dimensional images that suggest a three-dimensional experience; and Jeff and Heather Thompson, glass artists who create an intelligent blend of contemporary and traditional glass-blown sculptures. Join them for food, wine and great music as they celebrate the beginning of their third successful year in business.

Gary Cooley's Collection Gallery highlights local artist Jim Horsley, who brings a freshness and honesty to his oil paintings that stirs the imagination and appeal of Central Oregon's Western heritage.

Clearwater Gallery's 11th Annual Miniature Show will run Friday, June 24, from 4 to 6 p.m., with art, artists, wine, light appetizers, and a sense of community. Preview some of the entered miniatures at www.theclearwatergallery.com.

Alpenhimmel will display work from local artists Charity Alva and Wendy Bachmeier; mosaic jewelry by Laurie Santa Maria; and assemblage art by Terri Smith. Enjoy the music of Elizabeth Pettyjohn and Scout Miller, fine wine and hors d'oeuvres. This month they are sponsoring Camp Tamarack, which offers outdoor school, art, and camping experiences to all middle school children in Central Oregon.

Twigs Gallery features Judy Hoiness, a well-known Bend artist, who uses a mixed media approach with vintage textiles, printing, painting, and drawing in this series. She and Jean Wells have worked collaboratively with abstract landscape as their theme. Jean explores the colors and textures of our Central Oregon landscape as well as the beach.

Ken Scott's Imagination Gallery, owner and artist Ken Scott will display several new works in his "Steampunk" genre. Other artists will feature new paintings in watercolors, oils and acrylics, fused stained-glass scenery, raku pots and vases, clay birdbaths and lamps, chandeliers, garden lights and scenery in metal. Don't miss the fascinating music and great refreshments.

Studio Redfield is featuring wood artists Greg Davidge and Laurence Dyer. Over the past thirty years, they have shared a love of the various woods that they use in their craft. The beautiful boxes designed and made by Laurence Dyer feature combinations of exotic woods such as koa and mango in combination with regional materials such as agate and elk antler. Greg Davidge works with exotic woods to create beautiful turned bowls and furniture pieces.

Sisters Gallery and Frame Shop is featuring the colorful fine art equine paintings and giclee prints of Sisters Artist Kimry Jelen, and new pottery from Susan Adams, Ann Grossnickle, and Ken Merrill. Stop by for hors d'oeuvres and fine art.

Other locations on the Fourth Friday Art Stroll are Jill Neal Gallery; Dyrk Godby Gallery; Things Etc...; Jeffrey Murray Photography; Gone Wishin'; Grizzly Ridge Upcycle; Navigator News; Beacham's Clock Co.; Sisters

Library; Old West Collectables; and Ken Merrill's Canyon Creek Pottery.

This month's Quick Draw is for a $100 gift certificate from Faveur Eclectic Unique Boutique, a store featuring European, bohemian and vintage inspired apparel for all ages. They are celebrating the fifth anniversary of the opening of their Bend store. They will be open in their Sisters location for the art stroll, serving complimentary champagne and chocolate. They are also a Quick Draw entry location.

Quick Draw tickets are available in all Gallery Walk locations, but you can only sign-up once per gallery — so the more galleries you visit, the greater your chances to win. The winner of this month's drawing will be notified immediately after the ticket is drawn, and also posted on the Sisters Arts Association's Facebook page. Maps are available in all gallery locations.
