The 2016 Sisters Outdoor Quilt Show runs from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday, July 9, all through downtown Sisters.

“Infinite Stitches” is the theme of this year’s show and the 2016 poster created by Sisters’ artist, Kathy Deggendorfer.

“Kathy’s work is iconic, and her work reflects all things Sisters,” says Quilt Show founder Jean Wells Keenan.

There is a “Meet the Artist” event hosted by Stitchin’ Post on July 7, 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. and on July 9 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Quilt Show week kicks off on Sunday, July 3, noon to 4 p.m. with the 13th Annual Fiber Arts Stroll. More than 20 fiber artists share their textile arts including quilts, weaving, basketry, fabric dyeing and much, much more. This is the most unique art stroll in Sisters — the artists are on hand showing you how it’s done and some may even have a project you can try yourself!

The show’s third “Men Behind the Quilts” Quilt Auction and Calendar Preview will be held Wednesday, July 6, 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. Join show volunteers as they reveal this 2017, 12-month calendar featuring gorgeous quilts — which will be auctioned off — and the equally handsome, community-minded men of Sisters Country. Tickets are $25. The calendars always sell out — make sure you get several for yourself and gifts for friends and family!

On Sunday, July 10, visit the FivePine campus at the east end of town for a stunning outdoor display and quilting lecture by Kathy Doughty, presented by FreeSpirit Fabrics. Lecture tickets are $20.

The show’s special events sell out early, so get your tickets now. Many of the quilts on display can be purchased, with a portion of the proceeds supporting SOQS, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization which produces the annual Quilt Show.

A complete listing of volunteer jobs and online signup is available at www.sistersoutdoorquiltshow.org/volunteer-info. Prior quilting knowledge or experience is not a requirement.
