For Quality Service & Products

Folks love living in Sisters because of its small-town charm. But living in a small town doesn't mean you have to sacrifice big-time service. Sisters is full of quality, professional people operating all sorts of businesses that help you enhance the quality of life in Sisters Country.

Whether you need help with a home remodel, maintenance project or getting your landscape in shape to stay healthy and avoid fire, whether you need quality, accessible healthcare or are simply looking for a great place to eat, you'll find best-quality products and services right here in Sisters.

And spending your dollars locally ensures that the community itself stays healthy. Each dollar you spend circulates seven times in the Sisters economy. And when the quality is this good, there's no reason to look anywhere else!

Your Care

Sisters residents and Outlaw supporters opened Your Care in Redmond in March 2013, and since then the clinic has experienced continual growth.

That's because they are always working to serve families, athletes and businesses throughout Oregon with full walk-in medical care services.

New digital X-ray equipment enhances that service, significantly expediting patient care. An X-ray takes six seconds to get to the doctor's monitor, and there is a quick 20-minute turnaround for analysis from a radiologist. With X-rays in hand, Your Care can provide more casting services and bracing for injuries. And if you need a referral to an orthopedic specialist, you can get one quickly and go to your appointment with films in hand.

As an additional service, Your Care provides customized occupational medicine packages to help keep your community working.

Village Interiors

This month, Village Interiors is expanding, adding about 2,400 square feet of space devoted to new transitional styles of decor that are not quite "city" and not quite "country" — but are very much "Sisters."

The new space expands Village Interiors' palette, offering a clean look and texture that appeals to so many now.

Offering clients top-quality furnishings of all kinds at very competitive prices right here in Sisters is part of what has made Village Interiors a standout local business for three decades. But the key quality is service — the reason why 80 percent of Village Interiors' clients are returning customers; they understand trust, loyalty and connection.

Village Interiors truly goes the extra mile for their clients — because their clients are also friends and neighbors. Years of experience combine with true empathy and interest in your project to produce outstanding results — and happy customers.
