

Kids can get free park passes

With the start of the new school year, it's time for all fourth-graders and their families to claim their free Every Kid in a Park pass which allows free entry into all federal parks, forests, and recreation areas for a full year.

Fourth-graders can print out a paper voucher for free entry into all federal lands by visiting the Every Kid in a Park website at www.everykidinapark.gov. Students and their families can also redeem their paper voucher for a plastic pass at any Forest Service office. The voucher and passes are valid for the entire school year, September 1, 2016-August 31, 2017.

This pass not only entitles a fourth-grader and his/her family to free entrance to all National Parks for the year, but also to all day-use sites on the Deschutes National Forest including the Newberry National Volcanic Monument. In addition, the pass can be used to redeem one free Christmas tree permit at Deschutes National Forest district offices in Bend, Sisters, and Crescent.

Teachers or adults who engage fourth-graders through a youth-serving organization can print paper passes, and find activities and lesson plans, at www.everykidinapark.gov/get-your-pass/educator.

Today, more than 80 percent of American families live in urban areas, and many lack easy access to safe outdoor spaces. At the same time, kids are spending more hours than ever in front of screens instead of outside. The Every Kid in a Park initiative encourages valuable opportunities to explore, learn, and play in the spectacular places that belong to us all and aims to inspire future generations to serve as stewards of these places.

Research shows that children ages 9-11 are at a unique developmental stage in their learning where they begin to understand how the world around them works in more concrete ways. By targeting fourth-graders, the program works to ensure every child in the U.S. has the opportunity to visit and enjoy their public lands by the time he or she is 11 years old.

Volleyball starts season with wins

By Rongi Yost
Correspondent

Sisters volleyball team played in a dual match held at Madras on Tuesday, August 30, and walked away with wins against both Madras and Burns. The Outlaws defeated Burns 25-15, 25-18, 25-18 and then took down the White Buffs with scores of 25-13, 25-18, and 25-13.

Although the Outlaws notched wins, Coach Rod Jones really wasn't pleased with their effort and performance.

"They girls weren't ready to play, they weren't focused, and they played at their (opponents') level," said Jones.

Hawley Harrer was out with a tweaked ankle and didn't play in either match.

"We're just getting our legs wet, and we're learning," said Jones.

Last week, on Thursday, August 25, the Outlaws swept Santiam Christian in an easy match. A day later, on Friday, Sisters attended the Summit Jamboree. The Outlaws played four different opponents: Ridgeview, Burns, Madras and Summit, each in a single game, and tallied wins in them all.

"We played very well in the jamboree, and beat Summit in the last game," said Jones.

As the Outlaws look to next week, Jones commented, "Hopefully, we'll get after it and play some serious volleyball."

Sisters was to play at home against Bend High on Tuesday, September 6. On Thursday, September 8, the Lady Outlaws will play at Summit.
