Follow the Sisters Habitat Gingerbread Trail

It's that time of year to get into the holiday spirit, and one of the best ways to celebrate is by following the 10th Annual Sisters Habitat for Humanity Gingerbread Trail.

Many businesses in Sisters Country will decorate and display a gingerbread house as a fundraiser for Sisters Habitat. Trail-walkers can vote for their favorite gingerbread house by placing money in the wooden bank at each shop. Everyone is encouraged to vote for more than one house.

The creations will be on display beginning Friday, November 25, and running until January 2, 2017. Maps of the gingerbread trail are located at the Sisters Area Chamber of Commerce, Sisters Habitat Thrift and ReStore, as well as all participating businesses.

The gingerbread creation that receives the highest dollar amount will win the People's Choice Award. All proceeds benefit the building program of Sisters Habitat for Humanity.

Eurosports

The Three Sisters are wearing their winter blanket, and the first dusting of snow has swept across Sisters Country. Time to gear up for winter.

Eurosports puts winter fun in the reach of families with a children's seasonal lease program for skis, boots, and poles. For $145, you can get your child outfitted — and exchange boots if they grow a size by mid-season!

Peruse Eurosports' Winter Fun Center, where you can find snowshoes, cross-country skis, snowboards, fat bikes, Alpine skis — for sale or rent. You can outfit your whole family and your guests with one stop.

"If it's non-motorized in the snow, we pretty much have it here," says owner/operator Brad Boyd.

Eurosports makes renting your gear downright pleasant. Instead of long lines, you can come in the night before your ski trip and enjoy a beer while they get you set up. And speaking of beer — keep your eye out for Eurosports' upcoming beer-of-the-month club!
