

BUS: First week of route offers no-fare rides

will travel to Bend, arriving at Hawthorne Station at 7:47 a.m.

In the afternoon, two runs are identical to the morning run; one leaving Bend at 3:45 p.m., arriving at the first Sisters stop at 4:13 p.m. and leaving Ray's at 4:18 p.m. to arrive in Bend at 4:52 p.m.

The second afternoon run leaves Bend at 5:10 p.m., arriving in Sisters at 5:38 p.m., leaving Ray's at 5:43 p.m., and arriving at Bend's Hawthorne Station at 6:17 p.m.

When the Highway 20 roundabout project is complete in the spring, the Ray's stop will move west on Arrowleaf Trail close to the St. Charles medical clinic.

To acquaint Sisters residents and/or Sisters workers from Bend with the new route, there will be no fares on the Bend-Sisters route for the first week from Monday, February 6 through Friday, February 10. The bus will run every week from Monday through Friday, with no weekend service.

Community Connector route #28, which currently runs between Redmond and Sisters, will have a slight schedule retiming intended to minimize the amount of time waiting at the Redmond hub for a transfer. The new schedule is commuter-friendly and should better accommodate workers with typical office hours. The new Redmond-Sisters schedule will begin Monday, February 6.

The first morning run between Redmond and Sisters leaves the Redmond library at 6:12 a.m., arriving at East Main at 6:38 a.m., West Main at 6:40 a.m. and Ray's at 6:43 a.m., arriving back in Redmond at 7:13 a.m. There is no stop at George Cyrus Road on the first run.

The other morning run that does stop at George Cyrus Road to drop off Heart of Oregon Corps students, leaves Redmond at 7:23 a.m., arrives at George Cyrus at 7:43 a.m., East Main at 7:50 a.m., and Ray's at 7:55 a.m. Returning to Redmond, the bus stops at George Cyrus at 8:06 a.m. and gets to the Redmond library at 8:26 a.m.

In the afternoon, the bus departs Redmond at 2:40 p.m., arriving at George Cyrus at 3 p.m., the first Sisters stop at 3:07 p.m. and Ray's at 3:12 p.m. Returning to Redmond, the stop at George Cyrus is at 3:23 p.m., arriving at the Redmond library at 3:43 p.m.

The routes serving Sisters from both Bend and Redmond serve multiple zones, and so the fares will be $6.50 (regular) and $5 (senior/disabled) for a multi-zone day pass and $3.75/$3 for a single ride.

Those who qualify for half-fare or reduced fares are persons aged 60 and older, Medicare cardholders, persons who receive Supplemental Security Income (SSI) or Social Security Disability (SSD) benefits, as well as veterans with disabilities, with at least 50 percent permanent disability. There are also discounts for nonprofits and groups.

Tickets can be obtained from the Hawthorne Station at 334 Hawthorne Ave. in Bend (cash/credit cards only), the Redmond Operations Center at 343 E. Antler Ave., from CET drivers (cash only, exact change), or online via the CET website. Tickets purchased online will be sent via U.S. mail.

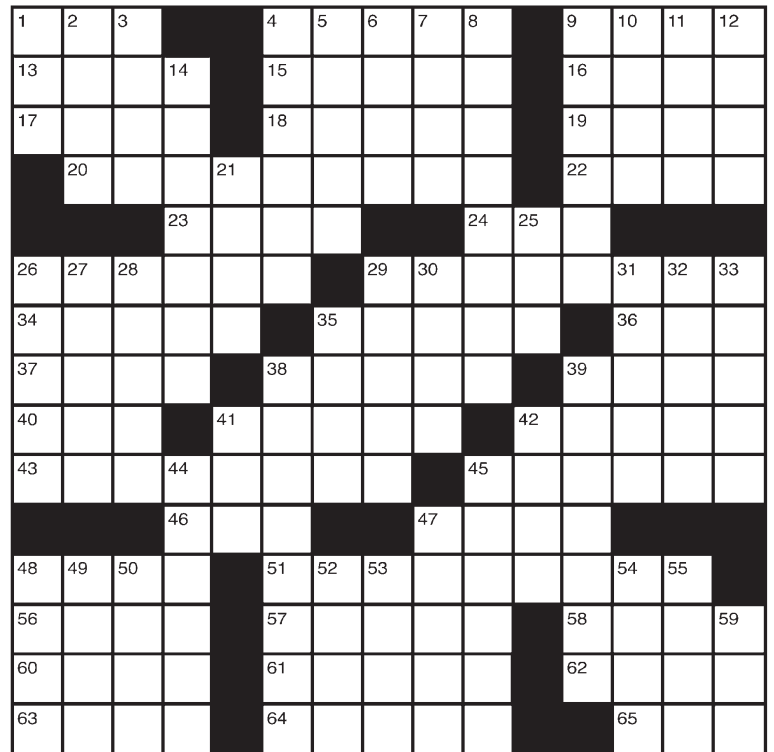

The Redmond hub will eventually move from the public library to the new hub to be constructed by Fred Meyer and Lowe's.

Additional information about CET services is available on their website, www.cascadeseasttransit.com or by calling 541-385-8680.
