

Shrove Tuesday feast set at church

The best meal deal in all of Central Oregon may be right here in Sisters on Tuesday, February 28, from 5 to 7 p.m.

Everyone is invited to attend the Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper at The Episcopal Church of the Transfiguration. The all-you-can-eat menu includes: Buttermilk pancakes, blueberry pancakes, sausage, variety of syrups, homemade applesauce, orange juice, coffee and tea. The cost for adults is $4; children ages 4 to 12: $2; children under 4: free; family of 4 or more: $10.

Fat Tuesday, Mardi Gras, Pancake Day, Shrove Tuesday — all refer to the same day. It is the last day before Lent begins, and 47 days before Easter Sunday. In the Christian calendar, Lent is a time when many Christians observe a period of fasting, repentance, moderation, self-denial and spiritual discipline. The purpose is to set aside time for reflection on Jesus Christ — his suffering and his sacrifice, his life, death, burial and resurrection.

During Lent, part of the discipline can include not eating fat, butter and eggs. These ingredients can go together to make delicious pancakes — and by using them up on Shrove Tuesday in a Pancake Supper they are no longer in the kitchen.

The Episcopal Church of the Transfiguration is located at 68825 Brooks Camp Rd., off Highway 242, just west of downtown Sisters.

Jury seated for new Oregon refuge trial

PORTLAND (AP) — A jury of seven women and five men, as well as four alternates, has been selected to hear the trial of four men who joined Ammon Bundy at last winter's armed takeover of a wildlife refuge in southeastern Oregon.

The Oregonian/OregonLive reported Wednesday, February 15, that the jury was chosen after attorneys for both the prosecution and the defense interviewed about 58 prospective jurors out of a pool of 1,000 people. The trial is expected to begin next week.

This is the second trial in connection to the occupation of the Malheur National Wildlife Refuge. Last fall, jurors acquitted Bundy and six others.

The defendants now on trial include Duane Ehmer, Jason Patrick, Jake Ryan and Darryl Thorn. All are accused of conspiring to impede Interior Department employees through the use of force, threats or intimidation.
