This coyote looks like he's eaten well through the long winter.

Scholarships available for seniors

It is time for Sisters High School seniors to be thinking about which school they plan to attend after high school. Many of them are thinking about how they might pay for their schooling.

Sisters GRO has been working with seniors for almost 10 years to create and administer post-high-school scholarships. Last year Sisters GRO administered over 50 awards to more than 30 students. In addition to the scholarships last year, GRO announced that they have added four new scholarships for Sisters High School students: Sisters Confucius Classroom Chinese Scholarship; Enterprising Spirit Scholarship (Open Door/Clearwater Gallery); Sisters Community Church Scholarship; and The Dentists of Sisters Scholarship.

Visit www.sistersgro.org to find the scholarships that might work for your students. Deadline for scholarship applications this year is Tuesday, March 21, 5 p.m.

In addition to the Sisters GRO scholarships, there are still funds available for middle school and high school students for extra-curricular courses through The Roundhouse Foundation. Sisters GRO has created a spreadsheet with ideas for students in science, math, health, art, dance and music. Visit www.RH.sistersgro.org to explore the possibilities.

THE CAMPAIGN FOR WHYCHUS CREEK

Flowing from snowy mountains, through pine forests and desert canyons, Whychus Creek IS Central Oregon. Speak for the creek in your backyard, donate to the Campaign for Whychus Creek: deschuteslandtrust.org/campaign
