Apartment complex expected next year

By Sue Stafford
Correspondent

If everything goes according to plan, a new 48-unit affordable-housing apartment complex will be providing housing by spring 2018 for renters who earn no more than 60 percent of the median income for Deschutes County.

At an open house last Thursday at Sisters City Hall, Sisters residents were able to view preliminary drawings and elevations for the units. Tom Kemper and Keith Wooden of HousingWorks were on hand to answer questions and provide information to interested citizens.

The development will occupy two separate parcels of land along Brooks Camp Road, behind Ray's Food Place. The larger parcel, which is also bounded by West McKinney Butte Road, will accommodate 32 one-bedroom, 600-square-foot apartments; four two-bedroom, 900-square-foot units; and four three-bedroom

Science Fair gearing up for March 18 event

The 2017 Sisters Science Fair is forging ahead with event plans and new exhibits. The Science Fair is scheduled for Saturday, March 18 at Sisters High School from noon to 4 p.m.

The Science Fair is a community-wide event attracting people of all ages to observe, ask questions and participate in the many hands-on exhibits. There's no reason to be overwhelmed by the exhibits. Students and adult volunteers will be walking around wearing buttons that say "ASK ME! What? How? Why?" You can stop one of them to ask questions or find an expert to help you. At the Science Fair, everyone is encouraged to join in the "magic of science" to learn and have fun.

"This year we have even more exciting experiments and displays from all three Sisters schools, community businesses, universities and statewide organizations," said Cal Allen, director of the Sisters Science Fair. "We've grown every year, with over 800 people last year walking throughout the high school,

Music and art enthusiasts gathered at Sisters Gallery & Frame Shop for the official unveiling of Sisters Folk Festival's (SFF) poster Wednesday evening, featuring original artwork by Dennis McGregor.

A little after 5 p.m. the 2017 SFF poster was revealed to overwhelming applause and cheers as folks gazed upon Lady Liberty holding a guitar in front of the world painted in warm hues of blue and yellow.

"The Statue of Liberty stands in New York Harbor, but belongs to all Americans.

She has welcomed countless immigrants since her own arrival in 1886, and she is seen here holding a small-bodied parlor guitar — which came into being around the same time," McGregor says "Stories and poems from around the world evolved
