do to position themselves for a satisfactory peek at the eclipse? Is it worth the time and fighting possible heavy traffic to get somewhere close to the centerline of the total phase of the eclipse? The duration of totality in Madras, the Painted Hills, Mitchell, Unity and other locations close to this centerline will be two minutes or longer. The maximum duration occurs in Kentucky and will be about 2:40.

If you stay in Sisters you will have only 30 seconds of totality. At the northernmost locations that you can reach from Wilt Road or Green Ridge Road, you will have a duration of almost two minutes.

From Wilt Road this will involve some rough sections of road, but a closer location called "Squaw Flat" before the road gets really rough may be a good place to observe and will have a totality duration of about 1:30.
