

Tickets still available for annual Sisters luau

A limited number of tickets to Sisters Park & Recreation District's (SPRD) 4th Annual Luau are still available.

The luau is set for Thursday, August 10 at Village Green Park.

Michael Dane and Sherwood Philips from the Oregon Coast will perform. Michael Dane has been a headliner for Salishan Resort and Gracie's Sea Hag in Depoe Bay for over 30 years.

Sisters ukulele players, DJ Chuck Boogie, Kurt Silva, Sisters Hula Dancers, and Halau Uhane from Redmond are also on the bill.

"I look forward to dancing with all the different entertainers, for dancing hula feeds my soul," said Shannon Rackowski, who organizes the event for SPRD.

The event is a fundraiser for the senior (kuupunas) scholarship program, which helps to subsidize or pay in full for exercise classes, evidence-based classes such as "Matter of Balance," "Walk with Ease," and "Living with Chronic Conditions," excursions, and transportation to these programs.

This year's luau will run from 6 to 8 p.m. Participants are advised to get there early, find a spot, listen to Hawaiian music, get kaukau (food), and sit back and enjoy the live entertainment.
