Oh, the weather's hot, but the arts are so cool! Check out your favorite artist in one of the galleries during the Fourth Friday Art Stroll, July 28, from 4 to 7 p.m. Then on Saturday, July 29, drop in at one of the artist's studios on the first Artist Studio Tour, sponsored by the Sister Arts Association (see related story, page 3).

Twigs Gallery is featuring the works of artist Judy Hoiness. For the last 50 years, Hoiness has painted either on paper or canvas. Now she is combining vintage and recycled textiles with drawing and painting, on paper or canvas. Recycled textiles provide seams, raw edges, wrinkles and button-holes that enhance her art in a way drawing and painting alone cannot. The three ongoing series in the show are Abstract Landscapes, Mt. Bachelor, Keeper of Secrets, and Save a Spot for Wildlife.

Entering The Jewel on Cascade Avenue is always a memorable experience. An Oregon destination for 27 years, The Jewel's powerful visual impact blends dozens of jewelry artists with amazing architectural alabaster solid stone, crafted into functional art and lighting. The and Mitch and Michelle Deaderick. Givot is a highly skilled watercolorist whose many different subjects reflect the beauty she sees with the eye of her heart. The Deadericks have been adding natural carvings, stones and crystals to their artistic and functional ceramics for more than 30 years.

Clearwater Gallery's featured artists are Amanda Houston, Jerry Dame and Dennis Dame. Houston will be in the gallery presenting her newest pastel paintings. The Dames will also be in attendance with their latest oil paintings.

Sisters Gallery & Frame Shop has Gary Albertson's recent black-and-white prints, previously shown at the Blue Sky Gallery in Portland. Also see new work and visit with the gallery's resident artists – watercolor by Caroline Stratton Crow, scratchboard by Jennifer Hartwig, and the pastel colored pencil landscapes by Mike Stasko. Ken Scott's Imagination Gallery features linoleum block prints by Charlotte Van Zant-King, whose work is based on her own experiences in Alaska, where her husband was a biologist and pilot with the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service for 20 years, and she was a wildlife rehabilitator and full-time artist. She has more than 20 large works (tapestries to murals) on public display in Alaska.

Raven Makes Gallery has new and whimsical selections from renowned Santo Domingo jewelry artist, Mary L. Tafoya. Her mosaic inlay jewelry continues to win awards and avid collectors. Revival of this ancient technique, using small stones, coral and turquoise in classic handcrafted heishi jewelry, has opened new doors for a generation of jewelers from the Pueblos of New Mexico.

Studio Redfield continues Randy Redfield's large color-filled new paintings and ceramics that mimic the abstract work he is known for. Also see hand-painted Kibak tiles for commercial and residential use.

Jill's Neal's Wild Tasteful Women will be open and showing the new NASCAR women, painted for a Florida company she just licensed with (Giftstone). The new giclees are available.

Be sure to visit these and the other galleries in Sisters: Beacham's Clock Company; Dyrk Godby Gallery; Grizzly Ridge Upcycle; Nature's Bling; Sisters Library Gallery; and Disney Fine Art by Animation Art Masters.
