lines. Secondary containment lines outside the perimeter are in the repair process.
Crews, dozers, excavators and wood chippers are working to return unused containment and dozer lines to a more natural state.

Unneeded equipment is being back-hauled to the incident command post and to assist on the Nash Fire.

The southwest flank of the fire backed down into the Pole Creek burn.

Several engines and firefighters have been working along the west flank and in the Lava Camp area to mop up hot spots and secure the infrastructure of the campground. Only one picnic table was burned. The fire has been backing down to Highway 242 over the past several days and on Sunday night crossed the highway in several locations into the lava fields. Firefighters mopped up those areas.

Cleanup is underway along Highway 242 removing logs, rocks, and debris, however the road will remain closed as additional work will be required to remove hazards. It will be closed until Oregon Department of Transportation has assessed the condition of the road and can ensure it is safe for travel.

There is a 30 to 40 percent chance of showers and isolated thunderstorms mid-week.

A visit for a snack...
