

Volleyball team knocks off league foes

The Lady Outlaws continued their domination on the court as they swept league foes Cottage Grove (CG) and Sutherlin last week. Sisters posted scores of 25-17, 25-19, and 25-23 in their win at CG over the top-ranked Lions on Tuesday, October 3. Two days later, they tallied a three-set win at home over Sutherlin.

Tuesday's win over the Lions saw the Outlaws at the top of their game at the service line: as a team they posted 15 aces. Sisters jumped out quick in the first set and never looked back.

Hawley Harrer led the Outlaws with nine kills and seven assists, followed by Kendra Sitz who contributed six kills. Erynn Ricker tallied 10 blocks in the match.

Two days later, the Outlaws defeated the Sutherlin Bulldogs in three quick sets. It was hard for the Bulldogs to return the Outlaws' serves, and time after time they shanked the ball.

Ashlynn Cantwell had a six-point serving run in the first set, which put the Outlaws on top 8-2. Sophia Silva had a four-point serving run and Harrer recorded a five-point run, all of which helped the Outlaws hold the lead the entire way.

The second set was much the same. Cantwell started the game with 12 straight serves, followed by Silva, who contributed a nine-point run, and gave the Outlaws a commanding 21-2 advantage. The serving was so incredible that the team didn't even make one full rotation.

In the third game, the Outlaws were able to mix up their line-up and rest some key players. Ellie Rush started the set with an ace and had a four-point serving run. All players got time on the court, and they never lost their focus. (See story on the Outlaws' performance at Clearwater Classic Tournament at www.nuggetnews.com.)
