

LOANS: Funds can pay debts, payroll and other bills

businesses, small agricultural cooperatives, small businesses engaged in aquaculture and most private nonprofit organizations of any size may qualify for Economic Injury Disaster Loans of up to $2 million to help meet financial obligations and operating expenses which could have been met had the disaster not occurred," said Director Tanya N. Garfield of SBA's Disaster Field Operations Center-West.

"These loans may be used to pay fixed debts, payroll, accounts payable and other bills that can't be paid because of the disaster's impact. Disaster loans can provide vital economic assistance to small businesses to help overcome the temporary loss of revenue they are experiencing," Garfield added.

Eligibility is based on the financial impact of the disaster only and not on any actual property damage. These loans have an interest rate of 3.305 percent for small businesses and 2.5 percent for private nonprofit organizations with terms up to 30 years and are restricted to small businesses without the financial ability to offset the adverse impact without hardship.

The Central Oregon Community College's Small Business Development Center is offering free, personalized counseling to help affected businesses in their recovery. Businesses may contact the SBDC at 541-383-7290 to schedule an appointment or visit the office, Mondays through Fridays from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., at 1027 NW Trenton Ave., Bend, OR 97703.

Applicants may apply online, receive additional disaster assistance information and download applications at <https://disasterloan.sba.gov/ela>. They may also call SBA's Customer Service Center at 800-659-2955 or email ercustomerservice@sba.gov for more information on SBA disaster assistance. Individuals who are deaf or hard of hearing may call 800-877-8339. Mail completed applications to U.S. Small Business Administration, Processing and Disbursement Center, 14925 Kingsport Rd., Fort Worth, TX 76155.

The deadline to apply for economic injury is August 16, 2018.

Sisters salutes...

• Jennifer Knowles-Seher thanked those who helped make the Sisters Community Thanksgiving Dinner a success. More than 50 volunteers served more than 250 meals (see story, page 3).

"I'd like to extend a HUGE thank you to: Sno-Cap Drive In, Ray's Food Place, Slick's Que Co., and J & R Snacks. Thank you as well to Aaramark Linen Service for all the tablecloths and napkins, and as has been in every year, Sisters Community Church for providing the venue and kitchen for this amazing event."

• Jeanette Pilak offered "a shout-out to Chuck Harper and Carol Zosel, Keller Williams Realty, Sisters. These entrepreneurs hosted a client appreciation event on the Tuesday before Thanksgiving. They invited their clients to select either an apple or a pumpkin pie. Chuck and Carol then bought more than 30 pies from Sisters Bakery and gave them to their clients. That's celebrating buy local — a big win-win for everyone."
