

Sisters Kiwanis sells See's Candies

Chocolate is one of the staple food groups of the holiday season. Each year, Sisters Kiwanis Club leads the populace of Sisters Country into temptation — but for a good cause.

Their See's Candies trailer is open in the Ray's Food Place parking lot, dispensing the boxed chocolates that have been a popular gift for generations.

Proceeds from the sales of the See's Candies help fund Kiwanis' many outreach programs in Sisters — from scholarships to the food bank to assistance for career-change education.

Kiwanis also supports Sisters Family

Access Network, the Sisters High School Key Club, among many others.

So a box of chocolates — or two or three — is more than a guilty pleasure. It's a gift that gives in multiple ways.

Vast Church

Vast Church invites the Sisters community to join the congregation in an open-air Christmas Eve service celebrating the birth of Jesus at Fir Street Park on December 24 at 4:30 p.m.

Children will re-enact the Christmas Story according to the Gospels of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John; there will be readings, singing and a lighting of candles in a service that practices the rhythms of the historical church.

The service honors the Biblical understanding of Jesus' birth — and all are invited to join in.

The lighting of the candles in the darkening evening is particularly affecting, as one light multiplies and grows throughout the park.

Dress appropriately for a winter's evening; the service will go forward even in the snow. Please bring a camp or picnic chair if you wish to sit, as seating is limited in the park.

Sprinkle Can Corner

Sprinkle Can Corner offers quilters and sewing enthusiasts in Sisters delightful fabric choices for their projects, along with home décor items crafted by local quilters and seamstresses.

If you are embarking on your holiday projects, stop by and discover a line of Western fabrics with horse and cowboy themes; novelty buttons; baby fabrics; and lots of flannel.

A local woman handcrafts wonderful doll clothes, which could make a very special gift for some lucky child.

You'll find gifts, cards, and aprons — and Sprinkle Can Corner also carries quilts on consignment from local quilters. Since Sisters is home to some very talented quilters, you may just find a real treasure here to give as a gift or to brighten your own home for the holidays.

Located on Hood Avenue west of Blazin Saddles, Sprinkle Can Corner is the newest addition to Sisters' arts and crafts scene.

Chops Bistro

The word is out in Sisters, and Chops Bistro is becoming a local favorite.

Co-owners Tracy Syanovitz and Grant Dixson are celebrating their first anniversary at Chops and want to thank the Sisters community for their support.

Book NOW for your holiday parties — whether they're business or family. Chops provides a great atmosphere and delightful food for your holiday gathering. Just tell them what you want to spend and they'll craft a special menu to fit your tastes and your budget.

Chops features live music Friday through Sunday nights. Chops Bistro can accommodate dinner for two or a large Christmas party, with a wide menu selection at a fair price. With all that, it's no wonder Chops has become a local destination for an evening on the town!
