Dry Canyon Stampede will get boots on the hardwood at The Belfry this weekend.

Dry Canyon Stampede hosts dance

Central Oregon country-western dance band Dry Canyon Stampede will send folks in Sisters stampeding out onto the dance floor at The Belfry on Friday night, December 15.

They're not sending them out there unprepared. There will be an hour of dance instruction from 7 to 8 p.m., and then the show gets underway.

"The first dance we'll be teaching will be the Horseshoe, which is a very fun, romantic pattern partner dance," said bandleader Kurt Silva. "However, for those of you that are nervous about coming without a partner, it is also a fun one to do individually, and actually some people prefer to do the Horseshoe solo."

Open dance is from 8 to 10 p.m. with live music provided by Dry Canyon Stampede.

"There will be plenty of opportunity to dance what was learned in the lesson, we've specifically created the set list to do so," Silva said.

Dry Canyon stampede is: Lilli Worona — fiddle and vocals; Kurt Silva — guitar and vocals; Mike Biggers — bass and vocals; Matt Engle — lead guitar; Mark Gillem — pedal steel and guitar; Dave Holmes — drums and vocals; Jim Goodwin — keyboards; saxophone; melodica.

Doors open at 6 p.m. at The Belfry, 302 E. Main Ave. in Sisters. Cover charge is $10/singles, $15/couples — cash only at the door.
