presented to Patty Beckman, best new weaver; Corienne Geddes, best use of color and design; Cindie Kitchin, complex weavers award; Suzie Liles, Handweavers Guild of America Award; Phoebe McAfee, judge's award; and Cynthia Jack Newman, best technical excellence. At each location, viewers will vote on a people's choice award, which will be tallied and presented at the end of the tour. The show will be hung in the Barber Library at COCC from January 8 to February 27, with a reception on Sunday, Jan. 14, from 2 to 4 p.m. The show then moves on to Marylhurst University in Lake Oswego, Umpqua Valley Art Association in Roseburg, Crossroads Carnegie Art Center in Baker City, and concludes next September to December at Willamette Heritage Center in Salem. Check the website at www.wegoregon.org for dates, open hours, and reception times for each venue.
