

Cassidy Ling-Scott

Sisters High School February 2018 Student of the Month

Cassidy Ling-Scott is taking advantage of everything the Sisters schools have to offer. She wants to get the most out of her experience here.

She's played volleyball and softball and was a competitive cheerleader, including a stint as lead cheerleader. She's started with the Americana Project this year. And, not least, she's on track to be a valedictorian.

"The arts and science and math are kind of my go-to things," she says.

She's so strong in math and science that she helps other students — which may line up with her career plans. She plans to go to a four-year college, probably in California, to pursue her favorite subjects.

"I'll probably go into biochemistry," she says.

She may pursue teaching, though — and she has that special quality of teachers who love to see their charges succeed.

"I love seeing it when it 'clicks,'" she says.

For Cassidy Ling-Scott, contributing is just the natural thing to do.

"I like to be busy, so why not be involved with things that help my school," she says. "I love my school. Why not go scream my head off at a basketball game?"

"Someone once said, 'There are few, if any, jobs in which ability alone is sufficient. Needed also are loyalty, sincerity, enthusiasm and cooperation.' Cassidy is an excellent example of one who puts forth all of these, no matter the task or the role. With a smile on her face and a willingness to serve, she steps forward with confidence and motivation. It has been a genuine pleasure not only to have this young lady in class, but to watch her active involvement here at SHS. She will surely be missed around here when she graduates!"

— Samra Spear

"I still shake my head in amazement when I talk about Cassidy. She finds the time to be on the cheer team, the volleyball team, an AVID mentor, while taking AP classes and helping start the a new tradition of painting senior parking spots. She's amazing! Whenever I see her she's always smiling. I'm not sure how she does it with such a positive attitude but I'm proud she does it while being an Outlaw."

— Joe Hosang

"Cassidy is an amazing student! I have enjoyed having her in class on and off since the 7th grade! She has been a LINK leader and a tutor for the AVID program this year and I have loved having her back in my class! She is a kind-hearted, hard-working, individual that works to help other students succeed! I know she will go do great things outside of SHS."

— Kristy Rawls

"Cassidy embraces life and the opportunities it brings fully and with a smile and can-do attitude. She leads by example and raises the rigor of the learning communities by her active participation and drive to learn. Cassidy pushes herself to be her best, and in so doing encourages her peers to challenge themselves as well. She has so much energy and determination to offer her community, and her positive nature is infectious. I am very proud of Cassidy and wish her the best!"

— Rima Givot

"Cassidy, is not only a joy to work with she also inspires other students to work hard and reach their goals."

— Tony Cosby

"Cassidy Ling-Scott is a tremendously well-rounded, gifted, and generous student. Her strong academics are matched by her willingness to contribute to the culture of Sisters High School through her leadership and spirit."

— Charlie Kanzig

"Cassidy Ling-Scott is a very naturally talented student in the Americana Project Program at the high school. She sings beautifully, she plays the guitar at levels far beyond her age and she has the perfect attitude to take on any challenge. Her version of the Beatles song 'Come Together' is a definite showstopper. Cassidy will accomplish anything and everything she puts her mind to. She is an amazing student!"
