meters with a time of 2:04.03. “Even though we are in the thick of training and having two meets in a week, the kids continue to compete hard even though they are tired,” said Larson. “I felt so pleased that two of our throwers, David Perez and Meaghan Greaney, got to experience wins at the varsity level and that so many of our team members scored points for us at Sweet Home.”

Sisters hosts the Rotary Invitational on Saturday, April 28, which includes teams from 11 other schools including Madras, Redmond, Elmira, Sweet Home, McKenzie, Harrisburg, Culver, Lakeview, Columbia Christian, New Horizon, and Cascades Academy. “We really look forward to hosting this meet and we are so grateful for the members of the Rotary along with team mom Kathy Kemper-Zanck for working so hard to gather the volunteers we need to make everything at the meet run smoothly,” said Larson. The Rotary meet kicks off with field events at 11 a.m. and running events get underway at 1 p.m.
