Outlaws scoreless in pre-season soccer

The Outlaws were shut out 6-0 by the Madras White Buffaloes in their pre-season opener at home on August 27, and three days later dropped their game 3-0 at Marist.

In Monday's contest, the White Buffs scored four goals in the first half and two in the second to post the win.

Coach Jensen said, "We made some system shifts in the second half and played better, but they had some strong finishers up top, and our defense was almost entirely new and has some stuff to work on."

On Thursday, the Spartans scored on a left-side break-away with 30 seconds left in the first half to go up 1-0.

In the second half, they crossed the ball from the corner and scored on a header. With three minutes left on the clock, Marist took a direct kick after a player went down with an injury, scored, and sealed the win.

"Instead of dropping it, they took a shot and headed it in," said Jensen. "Poor class, but what can you do? The guys played gritty and Colby (Simeral) and Asher (Bachtold) stepped in and played tough."

The Outlaws were to open league at home against Newport on Tuesday, September 4. On Thursday, Sisters will travel to Cascade.

Sat. • 9/8 • 6:30 PM Apricot Irving
The Gospel of Trees As the daughter of missionary parents, Apricot moved to Haiti at the age of 6 where her father began the mission to plant trees in a country which had undergone severe deforestation. Her family spent much of the next decade striving to improve the living conditions of people experiencing social upheaval and drought. This is a beautiful memoir about a family altered by its own ambitious philanthropy who might ultimately find hope in their faith and love for each other, and for Haiti.

Fri. • 9/21 • 6:30 PM Jane Kirkpatrick
Everything She Didn't Say Jane's latest novel about Carrie Strahorn, wife of a railroad promoter. In 1911 she wrote a memoir about the 25 years she spent traveling the American West with her husband. As only Jane can do, she images the life lived by this woman reading between the lines of her memoir. Carrie explores the lessons learned along the way, including the danger a woman faces of losing herself within a relationship with a strong-willed man and the courage it takes to accept her own worth apart from him.

Fri. • 9/28 • 6:30 PM Wendy Gorton
50 Hikes with Kids Northwest kids live in a magnificent natural playground; this adventure companion helps them explore its forests, beaches, mountains, and deserts. Scavenger hunts for every hike make it fun for families to learn about the region's geology, flora, and fauna. For successful adventures with even the youngest trekkers, Wendy includes a map, trustworthy directions, difficulty rating, restroom info, and places to grab a snack nearby for every trip.
