

Outlaws post soccer win

By Rongi Yost
Correspondent

The Outlaws have struggled with injury and illness all season long, but rallied to post a 5-0 home victory over the visiting Sweet Home Huskies on Thursday, October 18. Two days earlier they fell 0-4 on the road in a battle against Stayton.

Sisters struck first in Thursday's home contest against the Huskies. Colby Simeral broke loose on the right side and punched one in at the 25-minute mark to give the Outlaws a 1-0 edge. A few minutes later, Sisters scored again when Simeral attempted to cross the ball, and a Husky defender cleared it into the goal.

Connor Linn booted one in for the Outlaws approximately five minutes later. Connor dribbled past a defender and finished with a goal to the right side. Sam Mayes finished the first half scoring on a breakaway with five minutes left on the clock, and the

The Outlaws notched a shutout victory over the Huskies last week.

Outlaws went up 4-0.

Simeral scored Sisters' goal in the second half. The Outlaws did have many great looks and opportunities in the final half, but just couldn't get any more into the back of the net.

Senior Asher Bachtold said, "It was amazing to see everyone getting minutes on the field. It made me so happy that we were all cheering each other on, and that everyone was smiling. That's what soccer is all about."
