

Sisters dancer featured in The Nutcracker

Sisters dancer Kendra Kemp will be featured in multiple roles in a production of The Nutcracker at the Tower Theatre on November 24.

Academie de Ballet Classique will be presenting two performances, at 1 p.m. and at 6 p.m.

Kemp will portray Drosselmeyer, Snow/Flower Corps de Ballet, Russian and The Sugar Plum Fairy.

"We have been rehearsing since September, and it is sure to be a great show for all ages," Kemp said.

The 21-year-old Sisters dancer is marking a milestone with the performance.

"Personally, this is likely to be my final show in Central Oregon, as I will be starting school in January," she said. "Starting after the new year I will be studying dance at Loyola Marymount University in Los Angeles. Feels like a chapter coming to a close. I've danced with the Royal Academie of Dance (an international ballet curriculum) for nearly 18 years and I have studied with Valerie Holgers, the owner of Academie de Ballet Classique, since I moved to Oregon at the age of nine."

Your Team in Sisters

Your Team in Sisters — Dechen Dawkins, Kimberly Gorayeb, and Emerald Whitlatch — just listed a home that exemplifies Central Oregon at its finest!

Imagine your cozy holidays for years to come in this beautiful custom log home. Glorious amounts of space for sitting by the fire, baking cookies, and entertaining your friends & family for the holidays.

Nestled within the pine trees on 40 private acres, this log home has everything to enjoy the Central Oregon lifestyle. Open floor plan with cathedral-like vaulted ceilings is open to the chef's kitchen and dining room. Master on the main level, attached three-car garage, plus so much more! This one-of-a-kind beauty can be yours!

Dechen, Kimberly and Emerald found each other at a small real estate office here in Sisters. With dedication to each other and to their clients, they made a pact to provide the best customer service and to go above and beyond with whatever they do.

Your Team in Sisters wishes you a Happy Holiday and Happy New Year!
